□ 09N5sids sentence
1 (Case called)
2 THE COURT: We are here this morning for sentencing in 3 this case and if you have spoken to any of the Judges in this 4 district and anywhere else, I think they'll all tell you that 5 sentencing is the most difficult task of being a Judge. None 6 of us takes any satisfaction or joy in incarcerating people, 7 especially a woman of Dr. Siddiqui's intelligence, talents, 8 opportunities and possibilities. We all have families, as she 9 does, and we appreciate how difficult it must be for them to be 10 separated.

11 My goal in this proceeding following the February 12 conviction as a result of a jury verdict on all seven counts
13 charged in the indictment is to achieve a fair and reasonable 14 sentence which meets the sentencing law criteria and 15 objectives, and that is also sufficient but not greater than 16 necessary to comply with the purposes of our sentencing law.

17 I expect, incidentally, that this sentence will take 18 some considerable time this morning. I intend to be as 19 thorough as possible and to let everyone speak who 20 appropriately needs to speak. I also intend to show you how 21 the sentencing law works and to clear up some issues in some of 22 the sentencing submissions that I received from both sides.
23 And also my purpose this morning is to include some context for 24 this sentencing relating to aspects of the case and the trial 25 and so that any of you who, whether you agree or disagree with

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

□ 09N5sids sentence
1 the sentence, will have my perspective in one place, that is to 2 say, in one transcript of today's proceeding.

3 In sentencing a defendant following the Supreme 4 Court's decisions in the Gall case, in the Kimbrough case, in 5 United States v. Booker, among others, and also in decisions of 6 the Second Circuit Court of Appeals in the Crosby case and in 7 Regalado, the Court is aware of the following:

8 First, that the United States sentencing guidelines 9 are no longer mandatory; and second, the Court must and in this 10 case I have at least preliminarily, before coming out on the

09N5sids.txt

11 bench today, considered all of the factors found in our 12 sentencing law which we refer to as 18, United States Code, 13 Section 3553(a), and I have done that for each of the seven 14 counts in the indictment. And those factors that are set forth 15 in the sentencing law include the nature and circumstances of 16 the offense, the history and characteristics of the defendant, 17 the need for the sentence imposed to reflect the seriousness of 18 the offense, to promote respect for the law, to provide a just 19 punishment for the offense, to afford adequate deterrence to 20 criminal conduct, to protect the public from further crimes, to 21 provide the defendant with needed medical and/or therapeutic 22 care, educational or vocational training if that were 23 appropriate, or other correctional treatment in the most 24 effective manner. And, in doing that, we look at the kinds of 25 sentencing available. In this case the only sentence that is

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
(212) 805-0300

1 available is a sentence of incarceration. We look at the kinds 2 of sentence and the sentencing range established in the 3 sentencing guidelines even though, as I have said at the 4 outset, those are no longer mandatory.

Indeed, we typically start the sentencing analysis by 5 looking at what the sentencing guidelines propose. We also 6 look at any policy statements issued by the sentencing 7 commission, we seek to avoid unwarranted sentence disparities 8 among similarly situated defendants, and finally to provide for 9 restitution which is not a factor in this case.

10 So, I will follow this procedure this morning.

11 First I'm going to give you some background, 12 particularly aspects of this case overall which inform the 13 sentencing including, among other things, which inform the 14 nature and circumstances of the offenses in this case and the 15 history and characteristics of the defendant. And then after I 16 do that I will hear from the defense, including Dr. Siddiqui if 17 she wishes to be heard, and then from the government. And 18 then, third, I will review the sentencing guidelines and 19 proposal for sentencing from each side and all the other 20 factors that I mentioned before at 18, United States Code, 21 Section 3553(a) which govern sentencing. And you will see in 22 this case that there is disagreement between the parties, as is 23 often the case in criminal sentencing, as to what the 24 sentencing guidelines are and what the sentence to be imposed 25

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

09N5sids sentence
1 should be. And then, fourth, I will impose the sentence.

So, let's start here. Dr. Aafia Siddiqui the daughter 2 of a physician and social worker, is a 38-year-old citizen of 3 Pakistan who spent a significant portion of her life in Zambia
4 as a young child and later in the United States, as have other 5 members of her family including her brother who is an architect 6 and her sister who is a Harvard-trained neurologist.

As a college student she lived first in Houston and 7 then in Boston where she received an undergraduate degree from 8 MIT and a Ph.D from Brandeis University.

She was arrested and detained by the Afghan National 9 Police and officials of the Afghan Ministry of the Interior in 10 Ghazni Province, Afghanistan on or about July 17, 2008, along 11 with her 13-year-old son. It has never definitively been 12 established why Dr. Siddiqui and her son were in Afghanistan at

16 that time. Speculation has ranged from the following, that, 17 one, that she was looking for Ammar Al Baluchi, who I 18 understand she is married to and who is currently being held, 19 along with his uncle Khalid Sheik Mohammed, at the United 20 States Base in Guantanamo, Cuba, on terror-related charges.
21 Other speculation is that she was on a mission to attack 22 Americans. Another speculation is that she was there to 23 distribute documents instructing the Taliban how to make 24 explosives to destroy the foreigners and government Army.

25 Incidentally, I am not giving you the citations for
SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
(212) 805-0300

09N5sids sentence
1 all of these factors that I am mentioning but this is all from 2 the record.

3 At the time that she was detained she denied that the 4 child with her was her son. DNA testing proved that the boy 5 was her son. She was also at that time in possession of, among 6 other things, two pounds of sodium cyanide which is described 7 in the presentence report as a highly toxic substance that can 8 be weaponized and is poisonous even in small doses.

9 She also had various documents in English and Urdu, 10 some written or copied by Dr. Siddiqui herself, and those 11 mentioned U.S. locations and/or landmarks such as the Brooklyn
12 Bridge, the Empire State Building, and they also mention 13 techniques for combat against the United States and for 14 biological warfare.

15 From the transcript of the trial we find this quote:
16 "They," one of the witness referring to the handwritten 17 documents, "clearly indicated types of attacks to include 18 chemical/biological attacks. They indicated what appeared to 19 us as a target inside of the United States, targets
20 specifically in the New York City area." Some of this material 21 was admitted into evidence at trial, principally as background 22 or as reflective of knowledge, motive or intent, opportunity, 23 preparation, plan and absence of mistake.

24 In short order, the Afghans alerted the U.S. forces 25 who were in the area which I think it is fair to characterize

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

09N5sids sentence
1 as a war zone. And they, in turn, assembled a team, among 2 others, of U.S. officers and employees including Army special 3 forces, FBI agents and others, and their interpreters, who went 4 to the Afghan National Police compound to interview
5 Dr. Siddiqui. The American team met with what in my view can 6 fairly be described as an odd Afghan-arranged scene in a 7 crowded room in the police compound. What I mean by that is 8 unbeknownst to the Americans, Dr. Siddiqui had been left both 9 unguarded and unrestrained behind a curtain dividing the room 10 even though she had already tried twice to escape from Afghan 11 custody.

12 The jury determined that, after U.S. Chief Warrant 13 Officer put down his weapon -- in a gesture incidentally of 14 cordiality and respect for the Afghans -- Dr. Siddiqui picked 15 up his M4 rifle which is described in the indictment as a 16 machine gun, she aimed it at the Americans and pulled the 17 trigger firing off several shots. As she did this, she uttered 18 inferably in the same impeccable English that she has 19 demonstrated here in the courtroom, anti-American sentiments 20 such as, and these are quotes, "I want to kill Americans,"

09N5sids.txt
 21 "Death to America," "I want to kill all you mother" -- you know 22 the rest, and "May the blood of something be on your head or 23 hands." She missed the targets but the Chief Warrant Officer did 24 not. He shot her in the abdomen after a brave Afghan 25 interpreter named Ahmed Gul charged and helped to restrain

 1 Dr. Siddiqui who put up a violent struggle with the M4 still in 2 her hands both before and after she was shot.
 3 Dr. Siddiqui was removed from the compound by the 4 Americans including Special Agent Eric Negron and Captain 5 Robert Snyder with whom she continued to struggle. Negron is 6 quoted from the transcript of the trial as having said, "She 7 placed her hands on me, started to strike me, attempted to bite
 8 me, scratch me," etc. She was taken to the American hospital 9 base where she was treated and nursed back to health. And 10 where, incidentally, she made certain statements which were the 11 subject of a separate hearing within the trial on January 28, 12 2010 at which the defense called Dr. Siddiqui to testify.
 13 Within approximately two-plus weeks she was flown to 14 New York and shortly thereafter appeared here in the Southern 15 District of New York before Magistrate Judges Ellis and Pitman.
 16 CJA attorney Elizabeth Fink was appointed her first counsel.
 17 Ms. Fink would later be replaced at her own request by CJA 18 counsel Dawn Cardi and Chad Edgar, and they would be joined in 19 the defense by Attorneys Elaine Sharp, Linda Moreno and Charles 20 Swift who were retained by the government of Pakistan in 21 consultation, as I understand it, with members of the Siddiqui 22 family and according to a treaty to which the U.S. is a party.
 23 On September 2, 2008 she was indicted on seven 24 separate counts or charges or crimes, each count being a 25 separate crime or offense and they included the following:
 SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
 (212) 805-0300

10

09N5sids sentence
 1 Attempted murder of U.S. nationals, attempted murder of U.S.
 2 officers and employees, armed assault of U.S. officers and 3 employees, discharge of a firearm during a crime of violence, 4 and also three counts of assault of three different U.S.
 5 officers and employees; Interpreter Gul, Captain Snyder and 6 Special Agent Negron.
 7 She was, on February 3, 2010, as most of you know, 8 convicted of all seven counts charged in the indictment 9 following a two-week trial. In this case jury selection was 10 completed on or about January 13 and 14, and opening statements 11 in the trial itself began on a Tuesday, January 19th.
 12 Now, you should know that in considering these seven 13 counts for sentencing under our sentencing law we consider 14 Counts One, Two and Three and Five, Six and Seven as a group, 15 and we consider Count Four separately which, by law, needs to 16 be sentenced consecutively. So, One, Two, and Three Five Six 17 and Seven are grouped together for sentencing analysis and 18 Count Four is a consecutive sentence.
 19 After having appeared before two magistrate judges in 20 2008, Dr. Siddiqui refused to come to court voluntarily in the 21 fall of 2008 objecting to security searches by the Bureau of 22 Prisons. She also complained that a Zionist conspiracy existed
 23 and would prevent her from getting a fair trial. Indeed, 24 during the course of the proceedings she said all I did say was 25 that Israel was behind 9/11.

09N5sids sentence
 1 She also wrote to me, it should be noted, and these 2 letters are in the record that, and this is a quote, "I am not 3 inherently against Israelis or Israel or any other country or 4 people for that matter. I have studied and lived in facilities
 5 owned or run by Israeli-Americans for years. I have never said 6 or did anything negative about Israel or Israelis and certainly 7 not about Jewish people or Judaism." As Ms. Fink and 8 Mr. Raskin of the U.S. Attorney's office at the time agreed
 9 that Dr. Siddiqui should be examined for competency to stand 10 trial, her absence from the court in the fall of 2008 was 11 excused by me.

12 At this point I want to talk a little bit about the 13 competency hearing because the mental health issues have been 14 raised again in this sentencing.

15 On consent of both parties, that is to say the 16 government and the defense, Dr. Siddiqui underwent an extensive 17 competency exam after having been transferred to the women's 18 prison at FMC Carswell in Texas for that purpose.

19 Dr. Siddiqui refused to cooperate in the competency 20 exam but enough information was gleaned by experts for both 21 sides to reach their respective conclusions.

22 Following the expert examinations, Dr. Siddiqui was 23 returned to New York City and a competency hearing was held 24 with the experts and the Court was able to assess 25 Dr. Siddiqui's demeanor in the courtroom along with the

09N5sids sentence
 1 testimony of the expert witnesses and to review exhibits which 2 were submitted.

3 On July 29, 2009, I issued a 36-page ruling finding 4 that Dr. Siddiqui was competent to stand trial and reflecting 5 that the defense had, in my judgment, not proven by a 6 preponderance of the evidence that she was incompetent. And 7 that was based upon an extensive record which counsel had 8 developed.

9 The decision and order of July 29, 2009 along with the 10 other proceedings in this case is incorporated here in its 11 entirety including the conclusion that I reached in that 12 decision, among others, that this is most certainly a situation 13 where the defendant's political beliefs and perspectives blur 14 the line between mental health issues and political advocacy.

15 Now, I want to talk about the period 2003 to 2008, the 16 so-called gap years.

17 There is insufficient evidence in the record
 18 conclusively to confirm all of Dr. Siddiqui's whereabouts
 19 between 2003 and 2008. According to the defense, Dr. Siddiqui 20 acknowledged that she went into it hiding in 2003 shortly after 21 a man named Majid Khan was arrested, allegedly a man she 22 offered to help by setting up a mail box on his behalf in 23 Baltimore, Maryland. Khan is also one of the persons currently 24 detained at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. She stayed for some time
 25 with the family of Ammar Al Baluchi whom, as I said I

 1 understand she subsequently married and, to my understanding

2 but unsubstantiated, is married to today.
 3 After Al Baluchi's arrest by the Pakistani 4 intelligence, Dr. Siddiqui apparently moved to Karachi.
 5 According to the defense memo, she had claimed that a short 6 time after moving there a man named Abu Lababa issued a Fatwah
 7 for her to do biological research in order to develop defenses 8 for her country should Pakistan be attacked by an enemy. And 9 she did this for approximately six months.

10 She then apparently moved to Nazimabad and presumably 11 made trips from there to Afghanistan in search of Al Baluchi.
 12 According also to the defense memo, Dr. Siddiqui's son has 13 reportedly said they were living with Dr. Siddiqui's mother 14 and, quote, she also intimated that Dr. Siddiqui met with what 15 appeared to be jihadists and that he believed they were on a 16 suicide mission in Shazni before the incident which is the 17 subject of this case. Dr. Siddiqui's son is said to have made 18 some more recent statements which are at odds with the quote I 19 just gave you and I will discuss them in a minute. During this 20 five-year period Dr. Siddiqui's first husband, Mohammed Amjad 21 Khan, allegedly claims to have seen Dr. Siddiqui on several 22 occasions including in 2003 and 2005, riding in a taxi in 23 Karachi, Pakistan.

24 None of these five-year references is referred to here 25 as a fact in evidence in this case.

□ 09N5sids sentence
 1 The Court also notes that Dr. Siddiqui was an 2 unindicted co-conspirator in the case of United States v. Uzair
 3 Paracha. The government in this case has noted that these 4 current charges, that is to say the seven counts for which she 5 was indicted and convicted against her, are not related to the 6 conspiracy at issue in the Paracha case. Incidentally, the 7 charges in the Paracha case included conspiracy and the 8 substantive counts of providing material support and resources
 9 to Al Qaeda, making or receiving a contribution of funds, goods
 10 or services on behalf of Al Qaeda, and committing 11 identification and document fraud to facilitate an action of 12 international terrorism. A judgment dated July 21, 2006, was 13 entered in this Court by Judge Scheindlin against Paracha after 14 he was found guilty and she sentenced him to a term of 30 years 15 of imprisonment.

16 In the defense sentencing submission, particularly the 17 letter dated July 13, 2010, from Dr. Barry Rosenfeld, a 18 clinical psychologist, there is mention that Dr. Siddiqui came 19 into some contact with radical elements while in Boston while 20 she was living there. Dr. Rosenfeld mentions that while living 21 in Boston, Dr. Siddiqui had some interaction with extremists, 22 presumably groups that were affiliated with Al Qaeda and were 23 recruiting people for military training. In his letter he 24 says, and this is a quote, there was an organization that was 25 aligned with Al Qaeda and involved in facilitating terrorist

 1 activities but Dr. Siddiqui was not able to sustain a 2 relationship with them.
 3 There are defense allegations going back to the 4 assertions made first by Dr. Siddiqui's counsel Ms. Fink that 5 Dr. Siddiqui was intercepted while in a taxi in Pakistan on her 6 way to the airport with her children and taken into custody and

09N5sids.txt

7 thereafter tortured. And that is alleged to have occurred 8 sometime in or around 2003 or thereafter. There are defense
 9 allegations also that she was detained by Pakistanis and later
 10 by Americans. And it apparently has recently been reported, 11 that is to say in August of this year, that Dr. Siddiqui's son 12 said that -- has recently said that he and his mother were 13 detained and mistreated by American soldiers and people 14 speaking Urdu and Pashto.

15 I am aware of no evidence in the record to 16 substantiate these allegations or to establish them as fact.
 17 Indeed, there is no credible evidence in the record that the 18 United States officials and/or agencies detained Dr. Siddiqui
 19 prior to her arrest in July of 2008 after the incident 20 alleged -- the shooting incident alleged in this case.

21 A word about defense counsel.

22 On several occasions during the course of these 23 proceedings I have received written communications directly 24 from Dr. Siddiqui. Some of those letters expressed 25 dissatisfaction with her counsel and her wish to fire them. At

 1 one point or another this sentiment applied to all of 2 Dr. Siddiqui's counsel including counsel retained by the 3 government of Pakistan. On November 3, 2009, I conducted a 4 hearing on this subject and before the hearing I received
 5 proposed written questions to ask Dr. Siddiqui at the hearing
 6 from both sides, and following the hearing I issued detailed 7 findings of fact and conclusions of law dated November 10, 2009
 8 and I determined not to relieve Dr. Siddiqui's attorneys for 9 the following reasons, among others: (1) it was then on the 10 eve of trial; (2) there had been no significant breakdown in 11 attorney-client communications and counsel, particularly 12 Ms. Sharp, were communicating with Dr. Siddiqui at the time; 13 (3) neither Dr. Siddiqui nor her family had provided an 14 alternative proposal as to who would represent her; and (4) and 15 understandably, Dr. Siddiqui did not wish to represent herself 16 and appear pro se.

17 Now, the trial itself, just a few minutes.

18 This was a complicated trial, not necessarily because 19 of the charges in the indictment but because of issues that 20 were sometimes peripheral to the charges. For one thing there 21 were security issues which need to be attended to in 22 high-profile cases. This, among other things, was the subject 23 of a Court order dated January 25, 2010 which you can find in 24 the docket. Despite precautions there was a serious incident 25 in Court in which a member of the audience allegedly made

 1 inappropriate and threatening gestures to two jurors which 2 caused me, after questioning the jurors, to excuse those two 3 jurors and replace them with alternates and to exclude the 4 audience member from further proceedings, and also caused me to 5 refer the matter to the United States Attorney's office where 6 it is currently pending.

7 Second, there was the issue of Dr. Siddiqui's 8 outbursts in the courtroom in front of prospective jurors and 9 in front of the actual jurors during the trial. These caused 10 the government to request that the defendant be excluded from 11 the trial and that we try the case without her. Respectfully,

09N5sids.txt

12 I concluded that that was not a good idea then or now and I
13 denied the request. It would have made no sense, in my view, 14 to arrest a non-U.S., in this case Pakistani citizen in 15 Afghanistan, and transport her to New York City for trial and 16 then conduct a trial in her absence even though she, herself, 17 was the cause of the disruptions.

18 So, every day of the trial Dr. Siddiqui was given the 19 opportunity to be here in the courtroom and conduct herself 20 appropriately, which she clearly knew how to do. And when she 21 was disruptive, which did happen from time to time, we made 22 adjustments such as removing her to a cell adjacent to the 23 courtroom where a TV had been installed and where she could 24 still, together with one of her attorneys such as Ms. Sharp, 25 view and listen to all of the proceedings.

1 There was never a single moment when Dr. Siddiqui was 2 denied the opportunity to confront her accusers and when she 3 did not have the opportunity to participate in her defense or 4 in a public trial. And she availed herself of that 5 opportunity.

6 Dr. Siddiqui engaged in the trial proceedings over the 7 objection of her counsel and following a hearing on January 28, 8 2010 Dr. Siddiqui elected to take the stand in her own defense 9 which was her right under our legal system.

10 On that same day, January 28, 2010 the defense counsel 11 called her as a witness in a separate hearing relating to the 12 voluntariness of certain statements she had made while 13 hospitalized in Afghanistan. Among other things there was that 14 interchange between myself and defense counsel. I said: I was 15 proposing that she could do that -- meaning testify -- in her 16 trial testimony later on, and I would reserve decision about 17 this part, that is to say I was suggesting that if the defense 18 wanted to, instead of having her testify both during the 19 hearing and then later that afternoon during the trial, she 20 could do it once if that were easier. And then I said, but if 21 you prefer and she prefers to testify now -- that was during 22 the hearing -- and then come back and testify again in the 23 afternoon during the trial, that's certainly agreeable to me.
24 Mr. Swift responded that: I think we need to call her now.
25 Then I asked: Is she ready? Ms. Sharp responded: Yes, I

2 The trial was completed, start to finish, within two 3 weeks with approximately 26 witnesses called live or by 4 deposition and it took one and a half days for jury 5 deliberation.

6 One final word I want to say about media in this case 7 and then I will turn to the counsel for the defense, to 8 Dr. Siddiqui, and to the government and hear from them.

9 All members of the press, domestic and foreign, are 10 welcome here and have been given full access to today's 11 proceedings and to the trial itself which began following jury 12 selection, as I said, on Tuesday, January 19, 2010. There was 13 in fact some initial uncertainty about several members of the 14 non-resident press, about their credentials, because some of 15 those reporters did not have a New York City Police Department 16 press pass and because it had been our practice in the Southern 18 credential for this court.

19 That certainly didn't last more than a day or two, and 20 this is important to me. There were never a day that any press 21 representative was unable to view and report on the trial 22 either in an overflow courtroom or here. And on 90 percent of 23 all trial days, that is to say by no later than the second or 24 third day of trial, Wednesday or Thursday January 20 or 21st,

1 So, let me take a moment now and turn to the defense.
2 Before I do that, Ms. Sharp, maybe I should ask you this. Have 3 you had an opportunity to go over the sentencing materials with 4 Dr. Siddiqui, particularly the presentence investigation 5 report?

6 MS. SHARP: Yes, your Honor. I did on July the 4th.
7 She was in her cell. She did not speak to me but I was able to 8 speak to her and her ears were not blocked, however I did 9 attempt to go over more recent submissions with Dr. Siddiqui 10 yesterday evening. I was with her for an hour and a half and 11 she did not wish to hear anything about sentencing so she has 12 no information about more recent filings.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So, we have a lot of ground still 14 to cover in sentence and I will defer to the defense who wishes
15 to be heard at this time and/or Dr. Siddiqui, whatever order 16 you all think that would make sense.

17 MS. CARDI: Your Honor, I am prepared to speak on 18 behalf of the defense.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And then we will turn to 20 Dr. Siddiqui after you speak, is that fair?

21 MS. CARDI: Yes, your Honor.

22 In thinking about what I was going to say to the Court
23 today, this is one of the most difficult cases I have ever 24 experienced in my professional career. It is difficult because 25 in many ways Dr. Siddiqui is an enigma. I don't think at this

1 time in history we really know what happened and what the truth
2 is in regard to the life of Dr. Siddiqui. I do know that I 3 respectfully disagree with some of the fact-finding that your 4 Honor has just related and I will address that in the course of 5 my discourse. But, I do know one thing -- we don't know what 6 happened to Dr. Siddiqui. We don't know what happened to her 7 between 2003 and 2008.

8 And while it is true that there are no facts before 9 this Court to corroborate or to aid us in knowledge, the 10 government knows. The government of the United States knows.
11 Do I think the prosecutor sitting at this table knows?
12 Probably not. Do I think the agents sitting at this table 13 know? Probably not. But do I think that the CIA knows and 14 other government agencies know? I believe they know. And one 15 of the curious things about knowledge here is that when I came 16 onto this case I was asked to get top secret security
17 clearance. And so I did that because it was my understanding 18 that it was required in order to properly defend my client.

19 It is not pretty to get top secret security clearance.
20 You really do open up your life in ways that one shouldn't have 21 to open up their life but I was willing to do that, to have 23 was required for my client.

24 So, I did that and I got top secret clearance only to 1 security information that was relevant to my defense of 2 Dr. Siddiqui.

3 Now, historically we know that at some point in the 4 future it is very likely that we are going to get information
5 about Dr. Siddiqui, about what happened here, about what 6 happened to her. It is not going to come voluntarily from our 7 government, it is going to come through a FOIA application or 8 through the energies and efforts of the press. We are going to 9 learn about things that the government isn't going to admit to 10 today and hasn't admitted to. The government has not admitted 11 to secret prisons, they have not admitted to torture, and they 12 have not admitted to many things that through history we have 13 discovered.

14 what I do know is that we have a human being here
15 sitting before your Honor today. Her life is in your hands.
16 And it is my job and my actually honor to talk to the Court 17 about the human being, not the political person, not what 18 America wants to think of her politically, not what the 19 Pakistanis want to talk about her or think about her 20 politically. It is about Aafia Siddiqui and what happened that 21 day and who she is. Quite frankly, she's a woman who is a 22 mother but whose children were missing for years.

23 Just recently, after the conviction, her little girl
24 appeared at her sister's home in Karachi. Her son has given

1 traumatized and God knows what he went through. And Sulemon, 2 her then six-month-old when she disappeared, is gone and no one 3 knows where he is.

4 I do know that during the course of my representation 5 of Dr. Siddiqui she has, and it has been related to 6 psychiatrists and prison officials, that she has feared talking 7 about those five years because of her fear and concern of what 8 would happen to her children. As a mother I understand those 9 fears. She would die rather than hurt her children. What has 10 that done to Dr. Siddiqui? I submit to you that what we have 11 learned about her, as your Honor has chronicled, has shown that 12 a once very promising young woman has deteriorated.

13 And while this Court has found that she is competent, 14 she is in fact suffering from mental illness and diminished 15 capacity. And that has been supported by not only the 16 psychologist we hired for the defense, but also her treating 17 clinician in Carswell, Texas.

18 Dr. Camille Kemky who testified, contrary to the 19 psychologists of the Bureau of Prisons and certainly testified 20 in a way that was not favorable for her professionally, that in 21 20 years of experience treating mentally ill people that it was 22 her professional people that Dr. Siddiqui was suffering from 23 schizophrenia. She said you can call it paranoid delusions, 24 you can call it schizophrenia, but that she was mentally ill.
25 And she stood fast on that position.

1 Dr. Siddiqui's demeanor, the things she's talked about 2 during the trial, the outbursts, have all been often fairly 3 incoherent and if left to continue to speak, Dr. Siddiqui 4 becomes more tangential and more incoherent. She suffers from 5 diminished capacity, that is clear. She makes the -- her 6 decisions, in regard to how and whether to cooperate with her
 7 counsel during the course of her defense, as Dr. Kucharski 8 said, is an indication of her delusions and her paranoia and 9 her fears.

10 This is not a simple case. This is not a simple 11 person. She's complicated. You look at her life, you look at 12 her prior life before this incident, there is no indication of 13 violence. She was not a violent person. She was an abused 14 spouse, that is for certain. She was beginning to show the 15 beginnings of her diminished capacity when she was studying.
 16 And I believe that Dr. Rosenfeld recorded in an interview that 17 one of her associates who studied with her indicated that she 18 had started off as a promising candidate but her mental 19 capacities diminished and her ability to work and do the work 20 diminished, that she did not really seek the kinds of 21 professional jobs that she should have given her background.

22 And I need to say something about her background. The 23 government has painted, yet again and repeated ceaselessly, 24 that she had a Ph.D in neuroscience. And they used that to 25 make the leap that somehow she is someone who is capable and

1 knowledgeable about chemical warfare and could be of huge 2 assistance to some, again, unknown force because the government
 3 has yet to prove that she has any relationship to Al Qaeda, 4 that somehow that neuroscience background has given her special 5 expertise.

6 Well, her neuroscience background, she wrote her 7 thesis -- she wrote her Ph.D on how children learn; cognitive 8 science. She is not a biologist, she is not a chemist, and 9 there is nothing about her studies that indicate or have been 10 shown that she has any special expertise on chemical warfare.
 11 In fact, if you read the writings that the government refers to 12 and the claims of all of the scientific information that she 13 has presented in her writings, we have the writings of a person 14 who is mentally ill. There was no such thing as viruses that 15 can attack only adults and not children. Hang gliders flying 16 into public buildings is hardly what anyone who is sane or 17 competent thinks can be an efficient form of a terrorist act.
 18 I mean, we read her ramblings.

19 Dr. Kucharski points it out, Dr. Rosenfeld points it 20 out, we've pointed it out, I have asked the world to read what 21 she has written; it is incoherent, it cannot be corroborated as 22 good science, it is the writings of a woman who is mentally 23 ill.

24 And we can continue in this courtroom to pretend that 25 that's not true but it is true. And so, I'm asking the Court

3 really think -- I really think that the jury got it and I will 4 tell you why I think the jury got it, your Honor, because 5 despite the fact that she was convicted on all counts in this 6 case, the jury came back and said that she was not guilty on 7 premeditation. And that's a curious verdict. It is our 8 contention that it is not so curious given what they saw, what 9 they heard, and we believe it supports an underlying 10 corroboration of the fact that she didn't have the mental 11 capacity to have premeditation. She was mentally ill and that, 12 to me, is significant, because the government spent two weeks 13 making their best arguments about her and her activities and 14 their allegations that she was a jihadist and that she was 15 someone who was going to harm the United States.

16 I mean, they didn't believe it. What they believed is 17 she didn't pre meditate. And let's talk about that because 18 that is really important and that's been ignored.

19 Dr. Siddiqui -- you look at all of the terrorist 20 cases, the cases where Courts have found that the terrorist 21 enhancement which allows the Court to sentence her to life, if 22 you look at all the acts in all of those cases and you see how 23 very different the acts in this case were, I mean, you have

3 I mean, we talk about the pocket letter. We talk

5 was she going to do in Ghazni province? She was going to do
6 what? Convert the Taliban? Bring people into the Taliban?
7 Bring people into the terrorist organizations?
8 Well that, if she was going to do that, I submit to 12 So, I mean, was she just off that day? No. People

2 Her fears -- she was a woman frightened, possessed,

4 didn't do a cold, calculating plan to come to Ghazni Province

9 She had an opportunity, she wanted to escape. She 10 grabbed an M4. And I submit to you, your Honor, that she 11 grabbed the M4 but we don't know, the jury has said that and 12 has found her guilty of the attempted murder, but we do know 13 that in the significant action report recently released in the 14 wikileaks information that there was a Department of Defense 15 document which was not turned over during the trial and which 16 the government says they did not have and were not aware of 17 which says that she describes the incident as her reaching for 18 the gun and being shot by American forces.

19 Again, will we know what really happened? We won't.
20 But it certainly is more consistent with what the defense has 21 said in regard to the forensic or lack of forensic evidence in

1 there are many legal issues. Many. There are sentencing
2 guideline issues, there are downward departure -- I mean, there
3 are departure issues, there are non-guideline sentencing 4 issues, but the most important issue is going to be what will 5 her sentence be. Will she spend the rest of her life in a 6 prison in solitary confinement for 23 hours a day?

7 I don't know if you have seen the prison cell that 8 Dr. Siddiqui has been living in for the last number of years.
9 THE COURT: I have. I have. I took a visit to the Brooklyn facility.

10 MS. CARDI: Right. It is a small concrete cell block, 11 no light, no windows, a toilet, nothing on the walls.
12 whenever I go to see Dr. Siddiqui I leave that prison
13 cell and think I would go mad being in that cell 23 hours a 14 day. She's let out for one hour of exercise. She is fed her 15 food through the cell. It is a horrible, horrifying existence.
16 And so, when you think today about how many years you are going 17 to sentence her to, what we have to think about is she will be 18 under those very same conditions, if not worse conditions, for 19 all of the time that she will spend in prison.

20 Now, it is our contention, and we've provided it in 21 our documentation, that Dr. Siddiqui should only receive a 22 12-year sentence because that's what we think is appropriate in 23 this case given her lack of violent past, her lack of criminal

1 and children, the conditions in which she will be held. The 2 fact that we do -- no one can say today whether or not 3 Dr. Siddiqui will be rehabilitated. We cannot predict. No one 4 can predict rehabilitation. No one can predict whether or not 5 she will get the proper medical and psychological treatment in 6 prison that will help her repair.

7 Yes, is she required to be incarcerated under our 8 system of law? Yes. No question about that. No question 9 about the jury verdict, no question about that. We are not 10 talking about her walking free after what has occurred here, 11 but we are talking about getting some sense of what is 12 appropriate.

I don't -- you know, we are going to look back at this era in our country and we may very well say that fear was what drove some of our sentences. Fear. And I think in this case a great deal of what the government says has been its desire to create fear; fear in our courts, fear in our society. Fear. And because of that fear they want Dr. Siddiqui to be sentenced to life in prison when really, under the guidelines, her sentence should be approximately 12 years -- 10 to 12 years without these enhancements for the fear factor, the terrorist enhancement, the now interpreting the attempted murder as first degree attempted murder with premeditation so you can bump up the guidelines even higher. Fear.

The Courts -- the Sentencing Commission said, look, what Dr. Siddiqui did was wrong but attempted murder ordinarily would be handled in that fashion. That's what a fair sentence would be for Dr. Siddiqui. But, no, we want it to be more because of fear. And, your Honor, it is my submission that it is, in some ways, in many ways irrational fear because there has been nothing about what Dr. Siddiqui has said beyond the incident that occurred that is in fact violent. She comes into this court and has often said I want peace, I want to make peace between the Taliban. If I could get Obama together with the Taliban we could have peace.

This is not the voice of a jihadist. This is not -- I don't hear her talking anti-American sentiment. She says I love America. Read her writing about why I am not a terrorist. She isn't in here like, you know, the Times Square bomber standing before a federal judge and pleading guilty and saying I'm glad I did it, I would do it again. I hurt women and children in America like you are hurting women and children abroad. You have never heard that from Dr. Siddiqui. Never. And you won't because that's not who she is.

She is a woman who was caught in a situation, she reacted. Her reactions have changed her life forever but the question is do we incarcerate her forever. Do we keep her in prison forever? And I submit to you that she is not the kind of defendant that we do that to.

Your Honor has a wide range here of where and how much

you can sentence Dr. Siddiqui to, but if you sentence her to life in prison it means that today at 38 years old you have given up on her with all of the possibilities that she can be treated and helped and repaired. And I submit to you, your Honor, that that is not a fair sentence, that that is not what is required in order to do justice. And that's really what you are trying to do here and it is a tough job. But what does it take to do justice?

I submit to you that it is not just to sentence her to life in prison. It is not just. And it is not just to throw away the key to this 38-year-old mother. It is just not. She hasn't done anything to deserve this Court throwing away the key on her, giving up on her. I mean, that is the beauty of our system of justice in America which is a good thing, that we do care about that. You care -- I know you care about that. You care about figuring out what is just and what is fair and you wrestle with that, as we all do. And I submit to you that 18 in wrestling with that you cannot give up hope that she will 19 reform, that she will be rehabilitated, that she can go home to 20 her family in Pakistan where she will go after she leaves 21 prison.

22 THE COURT: Here, Ms. Cardi, are two very fundamental 23 concerns that I have, and we will go through the legal 24 guidelines enhancements and mandatory maximums and all of that 25 which we will do that, but to address your points or your

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

0 09N5sids sentence
1 concerns, two things that trouble me, among other things in the 2 defense submission, are these.

3 So, Dr. Rosenfeld and Dr. Kucharski, both of whom are 4 respected clinicians, they both say in their opinions there is 5 serious mental health issues here. They don't, and no one has 6 throughout this entire case, suggested any prognosis, any 7 course of treatment, any course of medication if that's what it 8 would take, which would repair or help to repair the conditions 9 that they perceive. And, as you know, of course there are 10 other government psychiatrists equally prominent and equally 11 trustworthy who say that there is no serious mental illness and 12 so they don't bother, of course, to suggest a course of 13 treatment because they don't agree with Rosenfeld and 14 Kucharski.

15 So, even accepting your premise that there are mental 16 health issues, there is no way, in the absence of a really good 17 prognosis or a good course of therapy or good course of 18 medication, there is no way that you could protect against what 19 happened on July 18, 2008 happening again tomorrow for whatever 20 reason you are saying that it happened.

21 And the second is that for whatever reason, and I will 22 acknowledge that she has her reasons, Dr. Siddiqui has never 23 cooperated with any mental health physicians or her attorneys 24 for that matter. And that's her right. You know, no one is 25 forcing her to do anything and she doesn't have to cooperate.

1 But, without that component, without that engagement or 2 cooperation it is very unrealistic, it seems to me, to perceive 3 that there could be rehabilitation or that there could be a 4 different outcome than we have already seen.

5 So, those are two -- there are others but those are 6 two fundamental impediments to my coming to the conclusion that 7 she can, is, or will be, rehabilitated.

8 MS. CARDI: Your Honor, if I may address them?

9 Prison has certainly not been a good setting for 10 exploring treatment regimens as to whether or not Dr. Siddiqui 11 would cooperate with treatment.

12 I do know that -- and I want to address your Honor's 13 very, very specific question about how can we protect against a 14 repeat of what happened in Afghanistan.

15 THE COURT: It is one of my concerns.

16 MS. CARDI: Yes, and it is an important concern.

17 I think even with Dr. Siddiqui's suffering from her 18 mental illness, that was a unique event that was brought about 19 through circumstances that were really out of control and kind 20 of historically unique, and I think Dr. Kucharski points that 21 out in his report when he talks about her future.

22 It is not as if we have a mentally ill person who is

09N5sids.txt
23 going out into the street and going, and just at random, you 24 know, grabbing guns and harming people, shooting people, 25 hurting people. We don't have that. That's not what happened

09N5sids sentence
1 here. We have a very unique set of circumstances and that -- 2 and she addressed it in that way: What will happen to her in 3 the future?

4 Again, that is true we can never predict what will 5 happen in the future, but what we do know is that that 6 likelihood of the confluence of circumstances is highly 7 unlikely. And in all other aspects of her life there has never 8 been anything to indicate that she, herself, is a violent 9 person; that she is one who is going to, you know, shoot 10 somebody or harm somebody in this very way. I mean, we may 11 differ about what her writings or political issues are or 12 whatever, her intellectual or those issues, but as a human 13 being there is nothing for us to indicate that this will happen 14 again because I don't think this confluence of circumstances is 15 very likely to happen again in her life. That's number one.

16 Number two, as and I know -- 17 THE COURT: I don't really mean that she is going to 18 wind up in Ghazni, Afghanistan again and that she is going to 19 be arrested and that Americans are going to come. I mean 20 behaviorally.

21 MS. CARDI: Right, behaviorally.
22 THE COURT: Something, life is going to unfold and it
23 seems to me crystal clear that the past behavior is predictive 24 of the future unless there is some intervention that is 25 successful. None has been proposed in this case by the defense

1 and absent one -- and none that might be proposed is there any 2 suggestion that Dr. Siddiqui would cooperate in it. And 3 barring those two factors it strikes me that it is naive and 4 inconceivable that there is going to be a change or 5 metamorphosis or rehabilitation or whatever you want to call 6 it, absent those factors.

7 That's my opinion.
8 MS. CARDI: But, your Honor, she has not exhibited any 9 violent behavior in any way over the years she has been 10 incarcerated. In fact, she is a kind of a peaceful soul in the 11 prison system. She does not, you know, she does not cause any 12 trouble, she's basically quiet, and she's -- so, we don't see 13 violence in her even with her mental illness and diminished 14 capacity. Even if it were never to be treated, we don't see 15 her and I don't think the psychiatrist or psychologists see her 16 as a particularly violent individual in terms of future
17 violence. I think that it is hard to know whether or not 18 Dr. Siddiqui, once she is sent to a facility -- and I am going 19 to ask, by the way, that she be sent to FMC Carswell.

20 THE COURT: And I am going to grant that application.
21 I think that to the extent she has had some positive 22 environment since she has been here it has been there, so I'm 23 going to recommend that her incarceration be served at FMC 24 Carswell.

25 MS. CARDI: And my hopes --
SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

09N5sids sentence
 1 THE COURT: And her brother also lives in Texas so I
 2 think that that has a salutary effect.
 3 MS. CARDI: And my hope would be that they would be 4 able to assist Dr. Siddiqui over the course of these many years
 5 because I believe 12 years is many years, 15 years is many 6 years, 20 years is many years, will be able to help her, repair 7 her in many ways.
 8 But, even if your Honor's concern is will she be 9 rehabilitated, that's true of anyone who has committed 10 attempted murder. Right? I mean, you have defendants who 11 stand before you who have committed attempted murder, the 12 guidelines are this, you sentence them and you really don't 13 know at the end of their sentence and most people will serve 14 perhaps a 10 or a 12 year sentence for what she did without the 15 enhancements, just the sentence. We can't predict whether or 16 not they'll go out and do it again but we have a system of 17 justice that says that's not really what it is about. We 18 understand that there are, for certain crimes there is a finite
 19 amount of time that is fair and just. We can't hold you 20 because we think you might do it again, we can only give you 21 the sentence that we think is fair and just. And then the 22 question becomes whether or not people are rehabilitated or 23 they're not. And as you and I both know, people recidivate and 24 they come back and other people never come back again.
 25 I mean, the prediction, given the fact that I think

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

09N5sids sentence
 1 this was a unique set of circumstances, it is highly unlikely
 2 that Dr. Siddiqui will ever attempt to murder anyone again. It
 3 is very likely that at the end of her sentence she will go back 4 to her family, she will be quite a bit older and probably quite 5 a bit calmer and hopefully better, and we don't know what her 6 life will be like but hopefully she will be reunited with two 7 of her three children, hopefully her family will care for her.
 8 I think it is unlikely.
 9 But if we say that because what she did in Ghazni 10 Province means she never gets to go back to her family, she 11 never gets out because maybe she might do it again I don't 12 think is fair to Dr. Siddiqui.
 13 Now, did you have a second question, your Honor?
 14 THE COURT: No. I don't know -- those are some of my 15 concerns. I think we do need to go through -- I do, anyway, 16 all of the enhancements, consecutive -- 17 MS. CARDI: So, your Honor, I'm going to just end, 18 because I know we are going to go through the legal aspects of 19 this case, I'm going to end by saying that it would be, in my 20 view, extremely Solomonic of you to not sentence Dr. Siddiqui 21 to life in prison but to come up with a sentence that is fair 22 and just and protects and does all the things that the 23 sentencing guidelines and justice requires but allows 24 Dr. Siddiqui the hope of living her life outside of prison back 25 with her family in her home, that you not send her away forever

 1 because forever is a really -- it is a death sentence for her.

4 Thank you, your Honor.
5 THE COURT: Thank you.
6 Dr. Siddiqui?
7 THE DEFENDANT: I want to hear what they have to say
8 because then you won't give me an opportunity a second time.
9 THE COURT: Okay.
10 THE DEFENDANT: I'm sure they'll have stuff that I 11 don't agree with.
12 THE COURT: That's fair. So, let's hear from the 13 government and then we will hear from the Doctor.
14 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.
15 THE COURT: You bet.
16 MR. LAVIGNE: Thank you, your Honor.
17 I want to address as much of what Ms. Cardi said as I 18 can. I'm not going to address all the points but the first 19 point I want to address is this idea that the government is 20 trying to create fear. We are not trying to create fear, we 21 are presenting the facts. That's what we did with the jury and 22 that's what we have done in sentencing. And the fear that was 23 established in that case was on July 18, 2008, when Aafia 24 Siddiqui took an M4 rifle and pointed it at members of the 25 interview team. These are individuals who were and are serving
SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

□ 09N5sids sentence
1 this country, one of whom, one of the victims is right here in 2 court, Special Agent Erik Negron.

3 The Court had the chance to hear from these victims
4 and they and the Court heard directly from people who were in 5 the line of fire and who that gun was pointed at, that's the 6 fear that was injected in this courtroom. It was their fear.
7 It was Captain Snyder saying he was looking down the barrel of 8 a loaded gun and thought he was going to die. It was Medic 9 Dawn Card saying the same thing, she thought she was going to 10 die and then, afterwards, describing the angst she felt in 11 treating a woman who moments before had tried to kill her. It 12 was Special Agent Erik Negron seeing two hands and a gun 13 pointed out from behind the curtain and then struggled with 14 Aafia Siddiqui after he had been shot repeatedly --

15 THE COURT: After?
16 MR. LAVIGNE: After she had been shot repeatedly 17 hearing her scream, "Death to America," "I want to kill 18 Americans."

19 That's the fear in this case. That's what this case
20 is about. That's what the jury found. The jury found Aafia 21 Siddiqui guilty of these seven counts in the indictment.
22 That's what we know, those are the facts.

23 We also know about these documents we have talked 24 about, which are relevant, because this is not some random act.
25 This is an act that was consistent with thoughts and documents
SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
(212) 805-0300

41

□ 09N5sids sentence
1 that were recovered from Aafia Siddiqui the day before. And 2 there is obviously disagreement about what those documents mean 3 or what they show. And Ms. Cardi is a great lawyer and she is 4 representing her client but I submit to you, Judge, that those 5 documents are clear on one thing: The United States is an 6 enemy, was an enemy of Aafia Siddiqui. And those documents are 7 replete with references to the fact that the United States is 8 an infidel, the United States is an enemy, and they discuss

09N5sids.txt

9 various ways to attack the United States.
10 Those documents speak for themselves and they're 11 consistent with the acts she committed on July 18th, 2008. And 12 those actions also are consistent with the statements she made.
13 The statements she made to the Afghans the day before she was 14 apprehended and the statements she made before, during, and 15 after that shooting.

16 So, I submit, characterizing this event as something 17 that was brought on by or caused by mental illness in a tense 18 situation is not accurate. On that day Ms. Siddiqui, the 19 bottom line is she saw her chance and she took it and she acted 20 consistently with thoughts that were expressed in writings and 21 in statements she made.

22 The other point I want to address is, you know, there 23 has been a lot of talk about mental health in this case.
24 Ms. Siddiqui has been diagnosed and evaluated by a number of 25 physicians. Obviously there are different views on that by

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
(212) 805-0300

42

0 09N5sids sentence
1 recognized professionals. The Court has had the chance to hear
2 directly from three of them and the bottom line is at the time 3 of the competency hearing almost everyone agreed that while at 4 Carswell, her mental health improved. And I know the Court is 5 recommending she be sent to Carswell but that's one way to 6 alleviate some of the issues that Ms. Cardi has highlighted.
7 And, we submit, based on our expert's report, that Ms. Siddiqui 8 is not suffering from significant, major, mental illness.

9 But the idea that rehabilitation, which Ms. Cardi
10 referenced as to how this is all related, that is obviously a 11 purpose of sentencing, it is in 3553(a). It is an important 12 part of your job, Judge, it is an important part of doing 13 justice, we recognize that, but there are other aspects of 14 3553(a): Protecting the public, providing just punishment.

15 And, again, this goes back to the fact that this act, 16 this crime -- it was horrific in its intent. There is no way
17 to describe it, no other way to describe it, rather. A 18 catastrophe was averted and, again, the Court heard from the 19 victims of this crime about what they were feeling. And the 20 Court has an obligation to protect the public and to punish 21 this conduct. And the guidelines -- I'm not going to get into 22 those now, but our view of the guidelines which we believe is 23 an accurate application of them recognizes this. The 24 guidelines say an offense like this in terms of who the victims 25 were, why they were targeted, in terms of the purpose of the

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

0 09N5sids sentence
1 act, that provides for a life sentence and we believe that's 2 consistent with 3553(a) in terms of protecting the public and 3 deterring similar conduct.

4 One factual point I want to make is the PSR does 5 reference a handful of incidents by Ms. Siddiqui but there has 6 been at least one instance that I'm aware of off the top of my 7 head around September 2008 where Aafia Siddiqui tried to bite a
8 prison guard during the course of a medical evaluation. I 9 mean, you know, we need to keep in mind and go back to the 10 underlying circumstances of this offense. And the guidelines 11 reflect and they're certainly not binding, we are aware of 12 that, but they reflect the severity of this by suggesting a 13 life sentence and we submit here that sentence is appropriate.

09N5sids.txt

14 I am happy to address any other questions that the 15 Court may have.

16 THE COURT: I do have one for you in a minute but when 17 you finish then we will hear from Dr. Siddiqui, but I am going 18 to go through the guidelines and the various interpretations of 19 them by the government, by the defense, by the probation 20 department and then my own interpretation, and I do intend to 21 go through, to the extent I haven't already and I have touched 22 on some of the criteria under the statute, but each of the 23 criteria under 18, United States Code, Section 3553(a) and 24 apply them to this case.

25 The one question I do have for you is that Ms. Cardi
SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

09N5sids sentence
1 made reference to the fact that the government knows what 2 happened in the 2003-2008 period and I just want to reiterate 3 what I said in my opinion: I'm aware of no evidence in the 4 record to substantiate these allegations or to establish them
5 as fact. This is the so-called disappearance and torture, etc.
6 And then I said there is no credible evidence in the record
7 that the United States officials and/or its agencies detained 8 Dr. Siddiqui prior to her arrest on July 20, 2008 after the 9 shooting incident in this case.

10 That's my opinion. What is your response to Ms. Cardi 11 and, also, could you also discuss the action report that she 12 referred to. It is part of the record incidentally also, it is 13 on the docket.

14 MR. LAVIGNE: Your Honor's understanding is consistent 15 with ours and that's also been the subject of filings we have 16 made which I'm not going to go into but that is our 17 understanding as well and any allegations to the contrary are 18 baseless.

19 THE COURT: What about this special action report that 20 Ms. Cardi referred to, the document that was recently 21 declassified?

22 MR. LAVIGNE: Your Honor, the significant action 23 report is a document, it is not intended to be a full and 24 complete recitation of the facts. It does not specifically say 25 that Aafia Siddiqui fired the gun. It does say -- I don't have

09N5sids sentence
1 it in front of me -- I believe that she picked it up, pointed 2 it at investigators and shot in self-defense which is 3 consistent with our theory.

4 As to whether the gun was fired, the Court had the 5 chance to hear from six different eyewitnesses who testified 6 under oath, and we submit credibly, that that in fact occurred, 7 that that's what they saw, and three witnesses who heard what 8 happened who, in sum and substance basically heard an M4 shot 9 or shots followed by 9 millimeter shots.

10 THE COURT: That's what the jury believed.

11 MR. LAVIGNE: Yes, Judge.

12 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thanks.

13 Dr. Siddiqui, would you like to be heard now?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Sir, do you want to give the 15 guidelines, whatever? Because then I won't have a chance to -- 16 I can wait until the very end as long as you give me a chance 17 to just clarify some things.

18 THE COURT: Absolutely. You can speak now. You can 19 speak later. You can speak both times, if you like. I'm 20 leaving it up to you.

21 THE DEFENDANT: Can I --

22 THE COURT: It is your sentence. It is obviously of 23 crucial importance to you and I'm happy to hear you out.

5 THE DEFENDANT: Is that okay.

6 THE COURT: That's fine with me.

7 THE DEFENDANT: By the way I didn't know that I was 8 going to get --

9 THE MARSHAL: Stay seated.

10 THE DEFENDANT: Oh, sorry.
11 From here?

12 THE COURT: Sure.

13 THE DEFENDANT: I just wanted to -- I haven't taken 14 any notes or anything but -- and I didn't know I was going to 15 get to say anything, so. I was planning on sleeping. But, 16 anyway.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Do you want to collect yourself?

18 THE DEFENDANT: No, no, no. I'm fine. I'm fine, 19 thanks to God. When I want to speak the truth, I mean whatever 20 I say will be a benefit to whoever who wants to listen. You 21 know?

22 I just wanted to just touch on a few things that were 23 mentioned. There were too many things, by the way, that I
24 don't agree with that are not true, but I'm just going to touch 25 on the things that will affect, in my humble opinion, the lives

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

09N5sids sentence
1 of a lot of people because, as I just said to the Judge, it is 2 not of crucial importance to me where I spend the rest of my 3 life. I don't believe he is in charge or they are, or they 4 are, or even I am, it is God. And I'm very happy and content 5 with his, the way he is treating me.

6 I am not being tortured in prison, that's one thing, 7 at MDC. This is a myth, a lie, and it is being spread among 8 the Muslims and I have a big problem with that.

9 I have not written any letter why or any letter, 10 period. The only letter I tried to send out -- I'm clarifying 11 this because these are issues that are emotionally disturbing
12 people overseas and I do not want a war between, you know, 13 people who have been misinformed overseas about my case and 14 because they know I'm innocent. I am. I do not agree with any 15 of the charges that I have been -- whatever, and I'm going to 16 go over that. But, as I said, what affects more people comes 17 first in my humble opinion.

18 So, I just wanted to clarify that I have not been 19 writing to anybody. People have sent me cards, sympathy 20 letters, whatever. They're all strangers. I do not know 21 anybody other than my brother sends me cards which only say how 22 are you, whatever, nothing -- I mean, post cards, but I never 23 even reply to him.

1 MDC, sent it certified with a return receipt but I never got a 2 return receipt so I assume they never sent it out. And the 3 problem with that is that now I have got some information, 4 there is a major problem with the chief of intelligence at MDC.
5 That is the person who is responsible for if there is any truth
6 in the rumors of torture and his name is Mr. Desmond. I'm 7 going to throw it out because I have very credible information 8 that I have been desperately trying to give to the FBI but they 9 won't let me. That man is involved in planning attacks against 10 the U.S. and there is a lot of other information I have. It is 11 concrete, it is coming from inside sources. When I say -- and 12 I thank you, Judge Berman. I really appreciate that you did 13 quote what I wrote to you. I am not against Israel. For the 14 sake of God, I am not against anybody, period. But, here is 15 the issue: I have been forcefully brought here. whatever.
16 You know, it is not my doing. But if there is things happening
17 under my nose that will harm America and I know about them, 18 there are people who are assigned to do all kinds of crazy, 19 ridiculous things to me so that they can make a big war.
20 That's part of the whole game. And if I get some solid proof 21 from them, if they own up in front of me that, yes, they did it 22 and would they, you know, help me and they don't like what is 23 going on and they would want to work with me to stop any 24 attacks against America, you know, if God is doing all of this 25 to me I'm a human being and I have a background of being a

1 social worker. My mother was one and I was her assistant,

3 in that. I can't be passive on these things. Would you? If 4 you knew there was going to be a catastrophe in the U.S. would 5 you not do anything to try to prevent it?
6 So, I just have to mention certain things sometimes 7 and that is where I have to mention the State of Israel. You 8 can call it a political statement or not, it has nothing to do
9 with politics, it is a humanitarian problem. You know, if you 10 want to fight a war that's all I say, fight it yourself. Don't 11 misinform the Americans playing this misinformation game and 12 make people fight who are not going to fight. And I know this 13 from my history, from secret prison where I was kept. They 14 don't want to acknowledge it, I'm not getting into that.
15 I have just said one thing all along. If anybody 16 thinks it is my paranoia or whatever, I'm not paranoid. I'm 17 not mentally sick. I do not agree with that.
18 There is a very simple way, if anybody wants to do it 19 for fun I can give you hundreds of names but I don't want to be 20 doing this, I'm just doing this because I'm stuck in this 21 country here and I can't bear to see the humanitarian disasters 22 looming using my case by spreading this misinformation.
23 I want to just say one thing, that you can genetically

16 them who are doing this and they're making big wars.

Look at America. I mean, it bothers me. And I have worked with war victims in Bosnia and recently I was given a book at MDC about Burundi and Rwanda and that conflict and how a survivor had escaped. It was a wonderful book but, oh my God the massacre it is just, you know, it is heart rending. I don't like war. I really truly don't.

The only letter I mentioned I tried to send out was to the Dallas Peace Center because they send a newsletter that I was given in the mail. And I thought here is somebody who is

1 I was not allowed to talk to the FBI for three months.
2 I have been begging everybody at MDC because of the reason the 6 If I was a criminal, in my right mind would I be 7 begging to talk to the FBI? And I'm saying this in front of 9 only people I know who don't lie. Okay? Because there were 10 several FBI people who came here during the trial, Angela

11 Sercer, who was talking to me in Bagram but she never told me
12 she was FBI. So, I regurgitated what my captives have fed me

8 want you to understand that God knows what we don't know.
9 Okay?

10 And what I have been saying is based on what I know
11 because I have had very unique experiences. Not many of you 12 have been in secret prison, have observed the drama from behind

14 made an agent for them. You know? So when you go through 15 that, they don't want you to survive it. And that's part of 16 all the stuff that goes on. But God wants me to survive and I

21 dream -- to say that you dreamt something when you didn't -- 22 and if anyone says anything then they can see their place in 23 the fire of hell.

24 So, having said that, I saw that -- and this is what I

3 entire universe. In the Qur'an, that's his title. (Speaking 4 in foreign language). All the Muslims know that, right? Okay.

5 Now, I keep saying that this war is a misunderstanding
6 and it should end. Here is who knows.

7 Now, I saw that he -- this is what was on my mind and 8 I was thinking of Yvonne Ridley. People might know, she has 9 been working on my case, she was a journalist. She was 10 captured in Afghanistan by the Taliban. They treated her well 11 and then released her and she became a Muslim. You know, she 12 wears a head scarf and she still does her work and all that.
13 And she was wondering why she didn't, you know, do that. She 14 was very impressed by the way they treated her. You know?

15 So I was thinking, you know, why do they have to kill 16 these American soldiers? There have been American soldiers 17 very nice to me in the prisons, Carswell and at MDC. And I 18 have cried for them. I pray to God to save their lives. I

3 that I mentioned earlier.

4 Okay. So, these people, I saw the Prophet, peace be 5 upon him, enter a room, and the room was full of soldiers, 6 American soldiers, and they were sitting on the floor hands
7 behind their back, apparently prisoners of war. And I followed 8 the Prophet, peace be upon him, behind him in that room. Then 9 he walked through another room next to it and that room was 10 also full of American soldiers and they were sitting too, hands 11 behind their back. And then -- and I was following the Prophet 12 and the Prophet turned to the soldiers and he addressed them, 13 and he just said one sentence. I don't remember 14 the exact words but I know the meaning of it, and he said to 15 the effect that he was consoling them, his tone was very 16 gentle, consoling them, and he said that there is some talk of 17 forgiveness and mercy. And then I see myself very clearly 18 standing right there.

19 That, to me, was an answer because I was very sad 20 about the lack of response for my peace, you know, offer, and 21 then I realized that God has heard me and accepted my effort 22 and he is telling me that I am sending you the mercy to all of 24 Now, the Muslims may think what on Earth? Those 4 don't. They have been misinformed. You know what I'm saying?

5 I'm not saying don't get -- I'm not even saying get angry at 7 Israeli-Americans, for years, and they did not rape her, they

6 THE DEFENDANT: But -- 7 (Recess)
8 THE COURT: So, what I am going to do and,
9 incidentally, before we finish today I am going to give 10 Dr. Siddiqui another opportunity to speak and ultimately I'm 11 going to give her the last word before I impose the sentence; 12 but we have a handout for you that might help you understand 13 these guidelines analysis because they're a little bit 14 technical -- well, they are technical and I thought this might 15 help. And they would also, if you discuss them, you will see 16 the disparity between what the government believes are the 17 guidelines, what the defense believes, and it will also discuss 18 the enhancements.

19 So, this first handout that you have, and Dr. Siddiqui 20 we will give you a copy of course as well, these show how the 21 probation department -- how the government and how the defense 22 calculate what the sentencing guidelines are for this case.

23 So, you remember before I said that the guidelines are 24 no longer mandatory as they once were but they are still a

1 sentence.
2 So, on the charts let's see, if you look for a minute 3 first at the probation department, the two key determinants are 4 what is called the adjusted offense level and the criminal 5 history category. And you will see that in the probation 6 department's calculations, the adjusted offense level is 51 and 7 the Criminal History Category is II, and as a result of that a 8 life sentence under the guidelines is called for on the six 9 counts that I mentioned before One, Two, three, Five, Six and 10 Seven, followed by an additional sentence for Count number 11 Four.

11 Four. And then you see the defense calculation and it is 12 dramatically different. It concludes that the adjusted offense 13 level is 27 and that the Criminal History Category is I and, 14 consequently, that is where the defense is proposing as a 15 result of that that I sentence to 70 to 87 months on the six 16 counts that I mentioned before and seven years as a consecutive 17 sentence.

18 sentence.
19 And then, third, in your handout, you will see what 20 the government says is that the adjusted offense level is 56 21 and the Criminal History Category is VI and that's why the 22 government says that the guideline sentence would be life 23 imprisonment.

So, obviously there is a big spread certainly between the government and the defense, and also a big spread between

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

Then we also have to discuss what are called the maximum sentences for each count. And then we need to discuss in determining what the sentence should be whether we will sentence consecutively or concurrently with respect to each count. And I will also talk about the finding with respect to Counts One and Two of no premeditation by the jury.

14 Counts one and two of no premeditation by the jury.
15 So, let's first start with the enhancements. The 16 issue of whether there should be and which enhancements apply 17 is obviously of great importance in this sentence. Simply 18 stated, the more the enhancements, the higher the sentence 19 under the guidelines. We make these findings, the Court does, 20 by it is called the preponderance of the evidence in 21 sentencing.

So, the first proposed enhancement is called the hate crime motivation or vulnerable victim. And without reading it entirely it says that, essentially, that the hate crime enhancement applies if the defendant intentionally selected any

1 victim on the basis of one of several enumerated factors, and 2 in this case it is national origin that's at issue. And I am
3 finding that this enhancement applies. It is a so-called 4 three-level enhancement. And the reason that it applies is 5 that the jury verdict, along with the record, support the

09N5sids.txt

6 application of the hate crime enhancement because the facts 7 make clear that Dr. Siddiqui intentionally selected victims on 8 the basis of their national origin as Americans.

9 Now, we know that from the jury verdict on the counts
 10 which specifically mention, for example, Count number One, 11 attempted murder of a U.S. national; Count Two, attempted 12 murder of U.S. officers and employees.

13 So, these -- and even the defense acknowledges that 14 Dr. Siddiqui's actions were aimed at Americans when it states
 15 in its submission that it is beyond dispute that Dr. Siddiqui's 16 primary concern was not to be taken to an American prison. I 17 think that's true.

18 And in its more recent submission in September the 19 defense said that when she heard the American troops arrive in 20 the very room where she was detained and, thus, was confronted 21 with the presentation of her worst fears, namely being 22 transferred to the custody of the Americans, she must have 23 freaked out, for want of a better term.

24 The testimony at trial also corroborates these 25 sentiments and does reflect that the selection of Americans as
 SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
 (212) 805-0300

66

□ 09N5sids sentence
 1 the object of the offenses occurred because of actual or 2 perceived national origin as Americans.

3 John Jefferson testified that he recalled Dr. Siddiqui
 4 saying at that time, and we have noted she has said other 5 things both today and to me, but at that time she said that she 6 hates all Americans and she wants to kill Americans and that 7 they would die by her blood. That's in the trial transcript.
 8 And also she said at the time I'm going to kill all you 9 Americans, you are going to die by my blood.

10 And Special Agent Negron -- these are just some 11 examples from the trial testimony -- said that at the time, 12 this is July 18, 2008, that Dr. Siddiqui yelled out: "I want 13 to kill Americans. I want to kill Americans."

14 So, this enhancement, three-level enhancement clearly 15 applies -- not automatically, but because of the factors that I 16 have just enumerated.

17 The second enhancement which I'm also finding applies 18 is called the official victim enhancement, and this essentially 19 says, and this is an oversimplification but rather than read 20 the whole statute, that if the victim is a government officer 21 or employee and the offense was motivated by that status, there 22 is an increase particularly where there is an offense against 23 the person by six levels. That enhancement applies.

24 Federal government officers or employees include 25 members, officers and employees of the United States armed

 1 forces as well as special agents and employees of the FBI, 2 among others. And these were the official victims of these 3 crimes.

4 During the course of instructing the jury I said to 5 the jury that, particularly with regard to the Count Two, among 6 other things but Count Two we can use as an example, attempted 7 murder of U.S. Army officers, I instructed the jury that 8 federal officers include members of the United States armed 9 forces and it is for you, I said to the jury, to determine 10 whether members of the interview team in fact held any of the

09N5sids.txt

11 titles or positions that we say they did at the time of the 12 alleged attempt.

13 So, for this enhancement to apply it is enough that a 14 defendant knows that the victim is a federal officer and then 15 assaults the officer in an attempt to get away or evade
 16 capture. The key factors are knowledge of the victim's status 17 and assaultive conduct motivated by that knowledge. So, that 18 clearly applies here.

19 It was up to the jury to determine, which they clearly 20 did by their verdicts, whether Captain Snyder or other members
 21 of the interview team, Chief Warrant Officer, Dawn Card, 22 Special Agent Erik Negron, Special Agent John Jefferson, Ahmad 23 Gul and Ahmad Jawid Amin held their titles or positions at the 24 time of the offense and whether they were engaged in or were 25 targeted on the count of the performance of their official

 1 duties. And, clearly, the jury found that the members of the 2 interview team did hold those titles at the time of the 3 offenses and were targeted on account of the performance of 4 their official duties, otherwise they would not have found the 5 defendant guilty.

6 THE COURT: Also, we have testimony Dr. Siddiqui 7 herself mentioned during the course of the trial that she had 8 heard Americans in the room and did not want to be taken into 9 American custody. The question was posed to her: What did you 10 hear? She said: Well, American voices talking. She also 11 said: I understood they wanted to take me away and that is 12 what I was convinced they were going to do and I wanted to get 13 out.

14 There can be no dispute that Dr. Siddiqui was aware 15 that the individuals present -- and there is no dispute, I 16 don't think -- in the room that day were United States 17 officers, employees or nationals. In fact, Captain Snyder was 18 asked: What did you say about why you were there? And he 19 said: Well, I explained to them that I was Captain Robert 20 Snyder, that I was representing the United States military 21 forces operating in Ghazni Province, that I spoke on behalf of 22 my commander and I that my purpose for being there was to 23 participate in the questioning or detention of the detainee and 24 who she may be.

25 So, that six-level official victim enhancement clearly
 SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
 (212) 805-0300

69

0 09N5sids sentence
 1 applies and in a minute I will show you another handout which 2 has my calculations.

3 Then the terrorism enhancement.

4 Now, this is a very significant one because if it
 5 applies, two things happen. First of all, 12 levels are added
 6 to the offense and if it applies, the criminal history category
 7 automatically bumps up to VI and that goes a very, very long 8 way toward leading, in the guidelines, to a life sentence. So, 9 let's see if that applies.

10 So, this enhancement essentially says that if the 11 offense is a felony that involved or was intended to promote a 12 federal crime of terrorism, increase by 12 levels and the 13 Criminal History Category goes to VI. And what they call 14 application note number 1 to this guideline states that for 15 purposes of this guideline, a federal crime of terrorism means

09N5sids.txt

16 an offense that is calculated to influence or affect the 17 conduct of the government by intimidation or coercion or to 18 retaliate against government conduct. And you have heard the 19 arguments of both sides here. I think it is clear that this 20 enhancement also applies and I will tell you why.

21 First, in attempting to murder U.S. nationals, 22 officials and employees, as we have described, Dr. Siddiqui was 23 involved in an offense, particularly Counts One and Two, and 24 these offense are specifically enumerated in the terror 25 enhancement guideline.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
 (212) 805-0300

70

09N5sids sentence

1 So, the terrorism enhancement does not hinge upon a 2 defendant's ability to carry out specific terrorism crimes or 3 the degree of separation from their actual implementation.
 4 Rather, it is the defendant's purpose that is relevant and if 5 that purpose is to promote a terrorism crime, the enhancement
 6 is triggered. That comes from the case U.S. v. Salim, 549 F.3d
 7 67, a Second Circuit case from 2008.

8 Second, I conclude that Dr. Siddiqui's offense was 9 calculated to influence or affect by intimidation the 10 government's fulfillment of its official duties including, 11 among other things, the interview team's efforts to interview 12 her and to detain her.

13 In my view, the calculations started at least the day
 14 before the July 18 incident. And so, we have testimony again
 15 from Dr. Siddiqui who said that she had been -- first she said 16 begging, but she didn't mean that, not begging but trying to 17 ask them -- this is now the Afghans, nicely, all night and all 18 morning, and this is prior to the arrival of the Americans -- 19 Please, don't hand me over. You guys keep me because -- you 20 guys being Afghans -- they were letting her cover her head and 21 her face.

22 We also know this from the, again, I think from the 23 defense submission which says we once again emphasize that the 24 evidence clearly shows that Dr. Siddiqui was desperate to avoid 25 being transferred into American custody. And we know it from

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
 (212) 805-0300

71

09N5sids sentence

1 the trial record which has -- which is replete with references
 2 to Dr. Siddiqui's efforts to escape from American custody.

3 So, on the 19th this was one answer. She was so 4 determined not to be taken into our or any kind of U.S. -- of 5 custody from the United States side that she was going to, I 6 guess, my opinion is, use every ounce of energy she had to 7 resist.

8 There is also evidence of the actions and statements
 9 of Dr. Siddiqui immediately before, during and after the July 10 18 shooting incident which I admitted during the course of the 11 trial including those references to, "I hate Americans," "I 12 want to kill you mother" -- and "death to America," and that 13 she was against foreigners; statements which, as we have heard 14 she now says may have been taken out of context or that should 15 have a different interpretation. Statements which also 16 demonstrate her actions and intent to retaliate against the 17 United States government.

18 So, we have both prongs of the terrorism enhancement, 19 both to influence or affect by intimidation and retaliation.

20 With respect to the defense intention that terrorism

enhancement is not co-extensive with the official victims enhancement, that's contained in one of their submissions, I agree that they're not the same. But, I also think it is worth noting that, and this is a quote, a District Court calculating a guideline sentence may apply multiple guidelines provisions

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

72

based on the same underlying conduct where that is the result clearly intended by the Congress and the Sentencing Commission. While such calculations may involve double-counting -- this is the Court talking -- in a literal sense, they do not involve impermissible double counting. That is a quote from the Second Circuit in In Re: Terrorist Bombings, 552 F.3d 92, a 2008 decision.

So, that this enhancement also applies and there is no basis that I can discern for departing downward from a Criminal History Category of VI to I and including the difficulties of rehabilitation. So, that enhancement applies, that's a 12 level enhancement.

Then lastly the last enhancement is obstructing or impeding justice. This is a two-level enhancement if it applies. One way one can obstruct justice is providing materially false information which, if believed, would tend to influence or affect the issue under consideration. I should say here that I am not concluding one way or another whether or not the defendant was malingering in evaluating this enhancement. I'm going to come back to this and talk about mental health issues.

Malingering, clearly, was an issue. The government's expert said that there was no serious mental health issues. They concluded that Dr. Siddiqui was malingering; Saathoff does, Johnson did, Powers I think did as well. But I'm not --

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

73

and I suppose that one could analyze malingering under this enhancement. I'm not doing that because I believe, and I say this most respectfully to Dr. Siddiqui, but I believe that she gave false testimony as to material facts and false trial testimony, standing alone, is an appropriate basis for imposing this enhancement for obstruction of justice.

So, how do I get to that conclusion? Well, the sentencing Court must find two things: One is materiality that the statement was essentially important; and second, that it was uttered or stated willfully.

So, first I find that the statements made by Dr. Siddiqui in Court at trial, they were very clear, they were very lucid, they were very focused and directed, and they were also materially material. They were designed to convince the jury that she did not commit the crimes for which she was charged. And regrettably they were also, in some instances, false.

So, I had found before she testified, incidentally, that she had a right to testify and that she fully understood beforehand her right not to testify and the ramifications of testifying or not testifying. I had said on the 28th, as we discussed I think -- this is me talking to Dr. Siddiqui -- you need to know it is a very important decision. It is a right that you have but it also will have consequences because -- that is to say if she testified -- because the jury will get to

74

09N5sids sentence
 1 hear you and form an opinion as to what you are saying and how 2 you are saying it and whether they think it is truthful or not.
 3 So, I asked, you realize that it is a very significant 4 decision, that is to say the decision to testify over the 5 objection of her counsel? And she answered: Yes, sir.
 6 There was more to that hearing, that's just a snippet 7 of it.

8 And if believed, the testimony would tend to influence 9 or affect the issue under determination. The jury found, among 10 other things, that Dr. Siddiqui intended to pick up the Chief 11 Warrant Officer's M4 rifle, that she did pick up the rifle, and 12 that she discharged it based on the testimony of very credible, 13 in my view, witnesses.

14 Dr. Siddiqui testified to an entirely different 15 version of material facts. She said that she never intended to 16 pick up the rifle and that she did not ever pick up the rifle 17 or that she discharged -- she said she did not discharge the 18 rifle. And I am finding that those statements were not true.

19 She further testified that she could not have 20 discharged the weapon because she did not know how to operate a 21 firearm and had never had weapons training. These facts too, 22 if believed, would have tended to exculpate her because they 23 were material to establishing the elements of attempted murder.

24 So, for those reasons I think that the testimony 25 related to material facts and was given to confuse the jury or

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
 (212) 805-0300

75

09N5sids sentence
 1 prevent the jury from finding her guilty.
 2 Now, as to willfulness. I also find that her 3 statements were willful and, as noted, intended consciously to 4 mislead the jury and obstruct justice.

5 Again her testimony was lucid, clear and cogent and 6 not the least bit confusing, rambling or incoherent, but her 7 testimony was directly contradicted by numerous credible
 8 witnesses. So, one case has said, accordingly, and that 9 applies here, the evidence and verdict persuades this Court 10 that the defendant knew at the time of testifying that the 11 statements to which in this case she testified were untrue.
 12 And the Court does not find, as the defense suggests, that 13 these inconsistencies in the testimony was the by-product of a 14 mentally ill person testifying on her own behalf.

15 So, without belaboring it, examples of the testimony.
 16 Dr. Siddiqui was asked if she ever picked up an M4 rifle and 17 aimed it at anybody and she responded: Of course not.

18 And when asked if she ever fired a rifle she said:
 19 No, no. In fact, let me tell you, an M4 rifle, I heard about 20 it but the first time in my conscious recollection I can tell 21 you what it looks like is when I saw it here in court. All of 22 this time I have been wondering what does an M4 look like. I 23 recall asking somebody if that is a pistol or a bigger rifle.

24 Another instance, when asked about herself being shot 25 she answered: I could feel blood and at that point I just

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
 (212) 805-0300

76

09N5sids sentence
 1 fainted on a bed. I couldn't move. I was thinking -- I

2 remember I was able to think but unable to move my hands and 3 feet.

4 But, Special Agent Jefferson testified, among other 5 things, that even after being shot she was combative and fought 6 with members of the interview team. Eric Negron said that he 7 was fighting with the female and trying to attend to the wound
 8 that she had sustained. And he was asked then: How were you
 9 fighting? He answered: He basically was trying to control her 10 hands. She was punching at him and she was trying to control 11 or restrain -- and he was trying to control and restrain her 12 hands.

13 And also when asked: Isn't it true in the early 1990s 14 when you were a student at MIT you took a pistol course at the 15 Braintree Rifle and Pistol Club just outside of Boston, is that 16 true? She replied: I have no recollection of that.
 17 Absolutely not.

18 And when asked: Ma'am, you have some familiarity with 19 firearms, don't you? She said: No, I don't. I look at a gun
 20 and I know it is a gun but I couldn't tell the different brands 21 of them, how to use them, operate them, those kinds of things, 22 no.

23 But you recall that Gary Woodworth testified credibly
 24 that he in fact had instructed Dr. Siddiqui at the Braintree
 25 Rifle and Pistol Club on how to, among other things, handle a

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

77

0 09N5sids sentence
 1 firearm, load and unload the safety of a firearm, and fire a 2 pistol.

3 And one more example: The Chief Warrant Officer
 4 testified credibly that he saw a woman squared off in the room
 5 with his rifle:

6 "A It all, like, happened. I looked, and as I looked there
 7 was my rifle, I mean, squared off. There was a woman squared 8 off, squared off in the room.

9 "Q When you say the woman was squared off, what do you mean?
 10 How did she appear? What was she doing?

11 "A It was an aggressive stance. It was as I would do it with 12 all my years of training."

13 So, those are the enhancements. I'm going to give you 14 a handout now that shows you my calculations of the sentencing
 15 guidelines. You will see that because of the enhancements --

16 MR. LAVIGNE: Judge, just one quick question. The 17 base offense level was also disputed.

18 THE COURT: I know. I'm going to get to that.

19 MR. LAVIGNE: Sorry, Judge.

20 THE COURT: So, in this handout you have my take on 21 the guidelines, two versions from me, one -- and this relates 22 to the issue of premeditation that we are going to have to talk 23 about in a minute, too.

24 One set of -- one guideline calculation by me arrives
 25 at an adjusted offense level of 56 and a Criminal History

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

78

0 09N5sids sentence
 1 Category of VI that gives rise to a life guideline range plus a 2 sentence for Count Four, but you also see I did a calculation,
 3 that first calculation assumes premeditation. I also did a 4 calculation which you have in this handout which assumes no
 5 premeditation, and in some senses it just doesn't matter 6 because you will see in the no premeditation handout that even

09N5sids.txt

7 if you start with a lower base offense level of 27 instead of 8 33, because of these enhancements you still wind up with a 9 guideline range of life.

10 And so, it really -- I mean, to minimize it, but it 11 really doesn't matter if you find premeditation or you don't 12 find premeditation for the ultimate guideline analysis.
 13 Because of the enhancements it's a life guideline range in both 14 instances. But, it is on the table so let's spend a couple of 15 minutes talking about premeditation.

16 My recollection, incidentally from the trial, was that 17 it was the government who proposed that we ask the jury to, 18 with respect to Counts One and Two, to, if, after they 19 determine and only after they determine that there was a guilty 20 verdict on Counts One and Two, they were then asked to 21 determine whether there was premeditation. The government can 22 speak for itself, but I presume that they were talking about 23 the difference between first degree murder and second degree 24 murder. First degree murder would have premeditation, second 25 degree murder would not and that, ultimately, as you see, could

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

79

0 09N5sids sentence
 1 affect the guideline range. But, again, the reason I say it
 2 doesn't matter, I mean in a practical sense, even if you
 3 conclude that there is no premeditation you get to a life 4 guideline range.

5 But I think there is a basis for finding premeditation
 6 by the Court and it would be as follows.

7 By the way, I think that, somewhat ironic, but the 8 government proposed the premeditation special verdict and the 9 defense opposed it. It makes no difference where it came from, 10 it was there and we have to deal with it.

11 So, again, what I'm trying to say is the presence or 12 absence of premeditation goes to whether Counts One and Two may 13 be considered attempted murder in the first degree or attempted 14 murder in the second degree. Whether or not the government 15 asks me to do, make a separate premeditation determination or 16 not, will not affect the guideline determination of life 17 because of these findings that I have just made with respect to 18 the enhancements.

19 The rules that apply are these, as I understand them, 20 post the Booker decision. District Courts remain statutorily 21 obliged to find facts relative to sentencing upon a 22 preponderance of the evidence even where the jury acquitted the 23 defendant of that conduct as long as the Judge does not do one 24 of three things: (1) impose a sentence in the belief that the 25 guidelines are mandatory, and as you have heard I have no such

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

80

0 09N5sids sentence
 1 belief they were not any longer mandatory; or (2) impose a 2 sentence that exceeds the statutory maximum authorized by the 3 jury verdict. We have to talk about the maximums in a minute 4 but I'm not intending to impose a sentence that exceeds the 5 statutory maximum for Counts One, Two, Three, Five, Six and 6 Seven, or impose a mandatory minimum sentence not authorized by 7 the verdict. I don't think I'm going to do that either.

8 So, there is sufficient evidence in the record for the 9 Court to find, by a preponderance of the evidence, that 10 Dr. Siddiqui acted with premeditation, if it mattered, and the 11 reasons are, first of all, there is evidence that her motive

09N5sids.txt

12 supports a finding of premeditation by a preponderance of the 13 evidence, that she wanted to kill Americans and she wanted to 14 escape.

15 Again, there is testimony, it was very clear in my 16 mind one of the witnesses said what her intentions were: To 17 shoot, to shoot at us, to shoot at me. Another statement is:
 18 I can only describe she was so determined not to be taken into 19 our -- into any custody from the United States. And, her 20 actions also demonstrate a reflection, in my judgment, she 21 anticipated the possibility of being turned over to Americans 22 on July 17, she said that. And, the Chief Warrant Officer and 23 Captain Snyder also announced their presence and purpose to the 24 Afghan officials before the shootings giving Dr. Siddiqui 25 sufficient time, in a legal sense, to develop and reflect on

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
 (212) 805-0300

81

09N5sids

1 her decision prior to her attempt to kill them. They were 2 asked why were you there, that is to say Captain Snyder, and he 3 said, sir -- and I said this before -- I explained to them --
 4 in the room this is now for all to hear, presumably -- that I
 5 was captain Robert Snyder, that I was representing the U.S.
 6 military forces operating in the Ghazni Province, that I spoke 7 on behalf of my commander and that my purpose for being there 8 was to participate in the questioning or determination of the 9 detainee, who she may be.

10 And the case law is clear that threats made before a 11 killing or attempted killing are relevant to a finding of 12 premeditation.

13 So, having assessed the weight and quality of the 14 evidence presented by the prosecution in determining a 15 reasonable sentence I find, by a preponderance of the evidence, 16 that the acts One and Two -- Counts One and Two were committed 17 with premeditation and that would mean that the base offense 18 level is 33 rather than 27. But, again, I don't think it makes 19 a practical difference here in the sentence because 20 irrespective of that base offense level, if it were 27 or 33, a 21 life sentence is proposed within the guidelines.

22 So, now we need to talk about some more legal 23 concepts; one is the maximum sentence. As you know, the Court
 24 cannot compose and assess, as I just said, the maximum for a 25 particular count and so we need to know what the maximums are.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
 (212) 805-0300

82

09N5sids

1 You have that also in this second handout.

2 The maximums for Counts One, Two and Three are 20
 3 years for each count, and the maximums for Counts Five, Six and 4 Seven are eight years. With respect to Count Four, I hope I 5 made clear earlier that under the sentencing law Count Four 6 requires a consecutive term, and in this case I think that of 7 at least 10 years is legally required because I am also finding 8 that Dr. Siddiqui discharged the weapon, as the jury found; the 9 upper range of Count Four is life imprisonment.

10 So, the range for Count Four alone, in my opinion, is 11 a minimum of 10 years and a maximum of life.

12 It is my finding, indeed beyond any doubt, certainly 13 beyond a reasonable doubt based on the trial record including 14 the testimony and witnesses, that the defendant in fact, as I 15 say, discharged a firearm and as a result a 10-year consecutive 16 mandatory minimum applies to Count Four. This finding, in my

09N5sids.txt

17 view, is in no way diminished by the significant action report 18 referred to by the defense which was recently declassified and 19 was attached to the government's letter of August 23, 2010 and 20 it is part of the docket and the public file.

21 So what this means, in a practical sense, is that the 22 maximum possible sentence in this case for Counts One, Two, 23 Three, Five, Six and Seven is 84 years of incarceration 24 followed consecutively by a sentence, the maximum of which 25 Count Four is life. I believe you understand that from what I

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
(212) 805-0300

83

0 09N5sids sentence
1 have said before.
2 And then just a note about supervised release.
3 Following incarceration, Counts One and Four carry a maximum 4 term of supervised release of five years. Counts Two, Three, 5 Five, Six and Seven carry a maximum term of supervised release 6 of three years. And I would intend to impose five years for 7 Counts One and Four concurrently, plus three years for Counts
8 Two, Three, Five, Six and Seven also concurrent. So, five plus 9 three, eight years.

10 Now comes the very crucial determination. Do we 11 sentence concurrently or do we sentence consecutively.

12 This, combined with the findings in the enhancement, 13 is of course obviously very significant to what sentence we 14 impose. I'm going to run the sentences consecutively in 15 accordance with the sentencing law.

16 I have considered all of the 18 U.S.C., Section 17 3553(a) factors as they apply to each of the seven counts of 18 conviction and I'm going to go through those factors in 19 addition to the ones I have already been through in just a 20 couple of minutes.

21 There is a legal point raised by defense counsel.
22 They appear to argue in a recent submission that Counts Two and 23 Three cannot be run consecutively, and they say that I think in 24 the footnote at page 14 of their reply but I don't think that's 25 true. I don't think that Counts One, Two and Three are what we

1 call multiplicitous in that they contain different elements and 2 each requires proof of facts that the other does not. The 3 citation for that is United States v. Larsen, 2010 WestLaw
4 3024883 from the Seventh Circuit. And also I am relying, in 5 part, this is a pre-Booker case but it is instructive, United 6 States v. Mcleod, 251 F.3d 78, a Second Circuit case from 2001.

7 MR. LAVIGNE: Your Honor --

8 THE COURT: So as I am intending to do, I believe --

9 MR. LAVIGNE: Your Honor, just before your Honor does 12 THE COURT: I'm not there yet.

13 MR. LAVIGNE: Okay, Judge.

14 THE COURT: I'm afraid -- I know it is a little long 15 and I'm probably boring but I'm not at the stage of imposing 16 the sentence yet.

17 Did you have an objection to anything that's been said 18 so far?

19 MR. LAVIGNE: Just a couple points I wanted -- one 20 specific objection and a couple points. I'm happy to do it now 21 or I can do it later.

09N5sids.txt

22 THE COURT: Go ahead.
23 MR. LAVIGNE: On Count One I believe the maximum term 24 of supervised release is three years, not five years, because 25 the statutory maximum is 20 years, that was in the PSR, that

1 was something we intended to flag for the Court.
2 THE COURT: What was it stated in the presentence
3 report? Five?
4 MR. LAVIGNE: In the presentence report, paragraph 91, 5 I believe it said that there was a five-year maximum term of 6 supervised release on Count One.
7 THE COURT: You think that's wrong?
8 MR. LAVIGNE: I do. I think it is three years.
9 THE COURT: Do you want to give us the cite? I would 10 be happy to stand corrected.
11 MR. LAVIGNE: I believe it is Title 18, U.S. Code 12 Section 3583. And because Count One is a Class C felony the 13 maximum term of supervised release is three years; 3583(b)(2).
14 THE COURT: Yes.
15 MR. LAVIGNE: And one other point, your Honor?
16 THE COURT: You agree that Count Four carries a five 17 year maximum?
18 MR. LAVIGNE: I do, Judge, because it is a class A 19 felony.
20 THE COURT: Okay. That would not affect the outcome, 21 but fine. That's fine.
22 MR. LAVIGNE: Right.
23 And a couple times regarding Count Four the Court has 24 said the jury found that Aafia Siddiqui discharged the firearm.
25 The jury did not -- and I know the Court is aware of this

1 because the Court made a finding, but just for the record the 2 jury did not find that. They found that she carried and used a

4 THE COURT: I found it based on the testimony at 5 trial.
6 THE DEFENDANT: I --
7 THE COURT: Hold on one second Ms. Siddiqui.
8 MR. LAVIGNE: And again, just a minor point for the 9 hate crime enhancement; I believe the Court indicated that that 10 applies given the jury's verdict which, obviously, was beyond a 11 reasonable doubt. The Court also indicated all these 12 enhancements are found by a preponderance of the evidence, but 13 the guideline does state for a hate crime it has to be beyond a 14 reasonable doubt.
15 THE COURT: Yes, and that is my conclusion and it is 16 my conclusion, as well.
17 MR. LAVIGNE: And the only other thing, Judge, is 18 we're aware that Ms. Sharp, at the outset of the sentencing, 19 indicated she reviewed the July 2010 PSR with Ms. Siddiqui and 20 attempted to review, I believe, it was recent filings. We just 21 want a confirmation, our understanding is those filings 22 included the most recent version of the PSR in that she 23 attempted to speak with Ms. Siddiqui about it and that she had 24 the -- Ms. Siddiqui had the opportunity to review it.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Fair enough.

4 MR. LAVIGNE: Thank you, Judge.

5 THE COURT: You bet.

6 Did you want to be heard again?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

8 I just -- again, as I said, I'm not going to clarify 9 personal things because I'm content with God's will, I really 10 am, so don't worry. Tell the Muslims, please, don't get 11 emotional. I'm okay.

12 I have to clarify just one thing, sir. Thanks to God 13 my memory has improved quite a bit. I remember very clearly 14 from the trial time the instructions given to the jury because 15 I'm constantly hearing the jury, the jury, the jury, the jury.
16 This is very significant because the jury is American. Okay?
17 And I do know, maybe I'm not allowed to say that because I was 18 informed by one of the attorneys that the jury will give me a 19 non-guilty verdict but then the verdict changed. Here is one 20 thing, significant. This was the day before.

21 I have to say this because, again, it is very 22 significant related to my case internationally so please hear 23 me out. And I am saying this, everyone is here, if I'm, God 24 forbid, lying, check out the records, unless they have been 25 changed because that happens in this court, unfortunately, that

1 what is said is not always what is recorded, in my case 2 especially.

3 But, in any way, I do recall very clearly, this is my 4 recollection, the respected judge had said to the jury, given 5 the instructions that this interpretation of the law which the 6 jury is required to follow is that if there is a fire -- and 7 I'm not quoting the exact words because I don't remember the 8 words but I definitely remember the theme, the meaning -- that 9 if there is a weapon, firearm present in the room and I --
10 accessible, that is interpretation of the law.

11 THE COURT: Excuse me, is what? I didn't hear. If 12 there is one present in the room?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes; if there is a weapon that is 14 accessible to me.

15 THE COURT: Oh.

16 THE DEFENDANT: That that, in his opinion of the 17 interpretation of the law, is that I'm guilty without 18 reasonable doubt of whatever, you know, you heard. One.

19 Second, if I say I don't want to go with you to people 20 who have done whatever they did to me, then I'm guilty of 21 assault and the rest of the charges. And he kept saying that, 22 at least more than once I heard it, that the jury has to follow 23 his interpretation of the law even if they disagree with it.

24 This is very important so I'm mentioning it and I'm 25 not blaming you, sir.

3 sponsored thing. A person may be under pressure from a foreign 4 government or somebody that they have to do whatever and then 5 they do it. So I don't blame anybody but I have to mention 6 that because American juries -- the American jury, no, that's 7 not true. The American jury -- and a lot of them were even 8 Jewish people, they were not going to sentence me that easily.
9 They were made to do that.

10 I have to say that.

11 THE COURT: Fair enough.

THE DEFENDANT: And the last thing, because I was cut short, I just wanted to finish, I want to ask the Muslims one thing. Since this has become being made a very emotional issue, there is a verse of the Qur'an which actually applies to everybody, it is I believe Hujuraat verse number, I don't know, 6 or 7, which says that if you get news from a source that is not, I don't know, that simple, that is not, you know, trustworthy, verify it unless if you don't -- and I may get it wrong but does anyone know the reference number? It is I think chapter 49, verse 6 or 7, but that you should verify it. If not, that you may take an action against people and regret it later on.

23 later on.
24 This is very important, especially in my case. There 25 are so many rumors, oh my God. And pretty much all of them are

3 death in prison do not do anything, do not believe it. You 4 know? If you can verify it to any verifiable means, pray to 5 God and leave it at that. Okay? I don't want any violence in my name. please.

5 my name, please.
6 But, I do want people to take this opportunity if you
7 want to do anything for me, please educate the people who don't 8 know about Islam about it because people do not know that this 9 is actually a religion of mercy and it will take away a lot of 10 the problems.

In prison people have come to me, the psychology department, asking for recommendation on how do you cope with anger? How come you are so happy? Because I was all smiles and laughing and joking after I got the verdict, don't ask me why. Because God put contentment in my heart. And I am still very content. whatever he gives me I don't have a problem because I know it is God in charge. Okay?

17 because I know it's going to change, 18 So, you have to tell the people that if they get it 19 right and it took me years of, you know, suffering to get it 20 right, finally -- I hope I got it right now -- that it will 21 really bring peace not only to themselves but around to 22 everybody. And I feel really sad that so many people are 23 missing out on it.

So, this is a collective responsibility.

25 And I am also saying this because God again showed 8 God knows maybe time is close, I don't know.

9 But, it is our responsibility to at least those people
10 because the Christians that I have encountered a lot, I have I 11 talked religion a lot with them. They're very good people, 12 there is always agreement only a little bit disagreement, there
13 is a lot of room for constructive talk. Do not demonstrate, do 14 not get into anything negative. There is no point. God is in 15 charge. Nobody knows. And when God has written, believe me, 16 he has written for me to come out of prison I am going to come
17 out. If he has the written for it -- hey, I was kept in secret 18 prison for years, people thought I was dead, whatever. So, it 19 was written for me so it happened. I am content thanks to 20 Allah.

21 That's it.

22 THE COURT: So, the upshot of my analysis is that a 23 sentence of significant incarceration is called for in this 24 case.

25 we have been through the sentencing analysis, it is

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

(212) 805-0300

92

09N5sids sentence
1 complicated and somewhat technical, but the conclusion that a
2 significant incarceration is appropriate seems to me completely 3 obvious and indeed compelled both by the jury verdict and the 4 relevant factors under our sentencing laws 18, United States
5 Code, Section 3553(a).

6 Relatedly, a significant incarceration is also 7 compelled by what I was talking to Ms. Cardi about, the 8 likelihood, in my judgment, of recidivism, the difficulty of 9 rehabilitation, and the need for what is referred to in the law
10 as incapacitation. That's a quote from U.S. v. Benkahla, 501 11 F.Supp.2d 748 from the Eastern District of Virginia, 2007.

12 And my other, another concern is that assuming 13 arguendo that the mental health issues are at play here which, 14 as you will hear in a minute because I'm going to spend some 15 more time on mental health, they're disputed; but, in any case 16 no one has proposed any, in my opinion, salutary treatment or 17 prognosis for Dr. Siddiqui to ensure that the same type of 18 behavior which occurred on July 18, 2008 -- and of course I 19 don't mean the identical behavior but that kind of behavior -- 20 would not happen again if she were at liberty. I regret to 21 conclude that, but I do.

22 Also, regrettably, she has not -- well, today she says
23 she has cooperated, but historically --

24 THE DEFENDANT: I just don't think that I am sick.

4 THE COURT: Fair enough.

5 And I add here, by the way, as you said before, that 6 you have written to me stating that you are standing for peace 7 and justice.

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. That's my wish. I mean, I 9 wish peace everywhere.

10 THE COURT: So, believing -- I believe, regrettably, 11 in a sense, that because of the reasons I have said at the 12 outset that a total punishment should be 76 years on six

09N5sids.txt

13 counts, One, Two, Three, Five, Six and Seven; 20 years on Count 14 One, 20 years on Count Two, 20 years on Count Three. With 15 respect to Five I think it should be eight years. With respect
16 to Count Six and Seven I believe that it should be four years
17 each. I have distinguished somewhat between the assault
18 against Interpreter Gul who fought with Dr. Siddiqui vigorously 19 to subdue her while she held on to an M4 and jeopardized his 20 life and those against Captain Snyder and Agent Negron, with 21 whom Dr. Siddiqui struggled forcibly but after the weapon had 22 been taken from her. I also, with respect to Count Four, 23 intend to impose a 10-year sentence which, under the law, I 24 must run consecutively.
25 And so, the total would be a sentence of 86 years of 2 AUDIENCE MEMBER: Shame, shame, shame on this Court.

3 THE COURT: If you are going to make another outburst
4 I will have you excluded.
5 We hear you. That's inappropriate in this court. So,
6 it is up to you. Do you want to stay and be cooperative or do

8 (No response)
9 THE COURT: I will take that as a cooperative. If 10 there is another outburst I'm going to have you excluded from 11 the courtroom.
12 So, I have discussed the nature and circumstances of 13 the offenses and partly explained the history and 14 characteristics of the defendant which I have also described.
15 The defense submission and also their oral presentation argues 16 that for someone who suffers paranoid ideations such as 17 Dr. Siddiqui, the circumstances of a team of American soldiers 18 coming into a room where she is held captive where her biggest 19 fear is being transferred into the custody of Americans and 20 brought to Gitmo must have been terrifying. The government 21 responds that, at trial, Siddiqui put to rest any issues
22 regarding her competency as she was able to answer questions 23 deftly, maneuver around the questions, put forward her defense, 24 and clearly communicate themes that she viewed as central to 25 her defense.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

09N5sids sentence
1 So, we need to talk a little more about the mental 2 health analysis before we can conclude and briefly about some 3 of the other factors in 18, United States Code, Section 4 3553(a).
5 By order dated July 29, 2009 I found the defendant
6 competent to withstand trial. I also find that mental issues 7 do not vitiate any of the intent elements for any of the 8 offenses of conviction. The record on this subject is 9 thorough, if somewhat inconsistent.
10 In response to my October 1, 2008 order, psychological 11 evaluations and conclusions, as a result, were reached. They 12 were reports dated November 6, 2008 and May 4, 2009 by Lesley
13 Powers, Ph.D, forensic psychologist, United States Department 14 of Justice, Federal Bureau of Prisons. You recall that 15 Dr. Powers' initial report concluded that she thought 16 Dr. Siddiqui was incompetent and, in her final report dated May 17 4, 2009, she concluded, in her professional opinion, that

09N5sids.txt

18 Dr. Siddiqui was currently competent to stand trial.

19 Dr. Sally Johnson, professor at the Department of 20 Psychiatry of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill 21 said that she concluded that her evaluation was that 22 Dr. Siddiqui was competent to stand trial at the time.

23 Dr. Gregory Saathoff, a diplomate at the American 24 Board of Psychiatry and Neurology concluded, in his opinion, 25 Dr. Siddiqui has sufficient present ability to consult with her

1 lawyers with a reasonable degree of rational understanding and 2 that she maintains a rational, as well as factual, 3 understanding of the proceedings against her.

4 Dr. Kucharski, who we discussed somewhat today who is 5 the Chair of the Department of Psychology at John Jay College
6 of Criminal Justice, he concluded then that it was his opinion
7 that Dr. Siddiqui is currently not competent to stand trial.

8 You recall also that Dr. Powers concluded that she 9 thought that Dr. Siddiqui was malingering which in the DSM-IV
10 is defined as the intentional production of grossly exaggerated 11 psychological symptoms motivated by external incentives such as 12 evading criminal prosecution.

13 Dr. Johnson also determined that in her judgment 14 Dr. Siddiqui was malingering. She mentioned that during her 15 evaluation Dr. Siddiqui was unable to expand upon her symptom 16 description in a way consistent with usual reports of visual 17 hallucinations. And, Dr. Saathoff concluded that he did not 18 see convincing evidence of major mental illness from 19 Dr. Siddiqui. He said that her constellations of varied 20 dramatic evolving symptoms that she uses to crowd the canvas 21 are much more consistent with maledgered mental illness than 22 true mental illness.

23 Dr. Kucharski then, at that time, concluded that no
24 direct formal assessment of Dr. Siddiqui's competency to stand 25 trial was possible and no evaluator had been able to question

1 her about her factual and rational understanding of the 2 proceedings against her or to assess directly her ability to 3 assist counsel because she did not cooperate with him.

4 She acknowledged, he said, to brief fleeting visions
5 of her children of a man standing outside her cell and of a dog 6 eating off a plate. These visions appeared to be hypnagogic
7 experiences and not true visual hallucinations. There appear, 8 he said, to be no auditory, tactile, or olfactory
9 hallucinations. Significant depression had been noted 10 throughout her incarceration.

11 Dr. Kucharski concluded that Dr. Siddiqui was 12 suffering from a delusional disorder and that she was 13 depressed. He noted that while some of her beliefs were 14 consistent with radical political ideology typical of militants 15 dedicated to jihad -- this is his opinion -- many others exceed 16 political ideology. For example, he said, her belief that 17 Israel, United States and India are conspiring to invade 18 Pakistan, that Jews are responsible for 9/11 and have 19 infiltrated American political and governmental organizations
20 are not bizarre in the cultural context in the militant jihad
21 beliefs. He also said that just because they are consistent 22 with radical jihadist ideology does not exclude the possibility

09N5sids.txt

23 that they can be so extreme as to be delusional -- of 24 delusional proportions.
25 More recently, on behalf of the defense Dr. Rosenfeld,
SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.
(212) 805-0300

1 09N5sids sentence
2 Barry Rosenfeld in a submission dated July 13, 2010 concluded
3 that there was considerable evidence to support the conclusion 4 that Dr. Siddiqui suffers from a genuine and severe mental 5 disorder. On the other hand he says the possibility of 6 malingering cannot be conclusively ruled out. His opinion is 7 that a diagnosis of paranoid schizophrenia or schizoaffective 8 disorder appears to be the most plausible explanation for the symptoms and observations.

In response to his report the government asked apparently Dr. Johnson and Dr. Saathoff to, at my request, I might add, to respond. And they did. And they still maintain, that is to say Dr. Saathoff concludes that, still, this is as of September 13, 2010, Dr. Siddiqui does not suffer from a major mental illness requiring medication or treatment. He says in fact that compared to her prior behaviors leading up to her competency determination she has demonstrated remarkable stability and that she has demonstrated a great deal of resiliency under the stressful circumstances of trial, conviction, and sentencing. He goes on to say a good deal more but I think that is sufficient for our purposes for now because we are running quite long.

21 we are running quite long.
22 Sally Johnson also concludes that having reviewed 23 additional information she does not find more support for the 24 presence of a serious mental disease or defect historically in 25 Dr. Siddiqui.

I am also recommending that she be housed again at FMC Carswell in Texas where she was housed before. Among other reasons, so that she can be near where her brother lives, as I understand it.

So, the other factors under 18, U.S.C. 3553(a), the seriousness of the offense, promoting respect for the law, providing a just punishment.

The offenses for which Dr. Siddiqui was convicted are very serious in nature as reflected by the case law, that is to say comparing this result with other cases.

say comparing this result with section 17(2)(b) of the Act.
Adequate deterrence to criminal conduct. Here I have considered not only specific deterrence which involves

SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

09N5sids sentence
 1 deterring the person who has been convicted so as to protect 2 society, among other things, but also general deterrence which 3 is defined as deterring others from committing the same crime
 4 by demonstrating its disadvantageous consequences. And here, 5 again, I think that a lengthy sentence is required both for 6 purposes of specific deterrence and general deterrence.

With respect to specific deterrence I have said now 7 several times no one has suggested a plausible therapy or one 8 that which Dr. Siddiqui is likely to cooperate in, at least not 9 yet, and so there is no way to assure that the incidents found 10 by the jury would not, in some form or fashion, happen again if 11 she were at liberty.

With regard to general deterrence, it is just 13 axiomatic that serious offenses such as these, attempted murder
 14 and assault of U.S. nationals and U.S. employees and U.S.
 15 officials must be deterred and when they occur they must be 16 punished significantly.

I also find that the public would be at risk of danger 18 if Dr. Siddiqui were at liberty although she has, on so many 19 occasions, stated that she is a person of peace. I'm not sure 20 that that would be the result, and to the extent that there are 21 mental health issues and particularly if no cure or therapy is 22 proposed, that it would be successfully administered.

I believe that, as I have said, further mental health 24 assessments and/or treatment are warranted during the term of
 25 SOUTHERN DISTRICT REPORTERS, P.C.

 1 incarceration. The prognosis, I think, has to be guarded
 2 because of the lack of cooperation so far.

And I will recommend that the Bureau of Prisons
 3 evaluate Dr. Siddiqui again periodically with respect to both 4 treatment and medication. I will also recommend to the Bureau
 5 of Prisons and to Dr. Siddiqui's family members, if they are 6 willing and able to help out, that she receive therapeutic 7 counseling while incarcerated, if warranted, by an assessment.

I realize that she may not cooperate with such 10 counseling or medication but I do note that at FMC Carswell in 11 the past had some success in communicating with her and, while 12 there she appeared, at least to me, to have developed 13 relationships with some of the staff and other members of the 14 population. And so, as I say, I am going to recommend that she 15 be incarcerated there.

As to the kind of sentences available, incarceration 16 is the only one that's appropriate. We have talked about the 17 sentencing guidelines, we have talked about policy statements 18 issued by the sentencing commission and as to the need to avoid 19 unwarranted sentence disparities among similarly situated 20 defendants. I have also canvassed the case law and while some 21 may disagree, I think that while no case is exactly like this 22 one, I think that the sentence is not unwarrantedly disparate.

Restitution is not an issue in this case.
 24 So, that is the analysis. If anybody from the counsel

Hold on one second. Any of the lawyers want to be 4 heard? Government?

5 MS. CARDI: No, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Defense.

7 MR. LAVIGNE: Just very briefly, Judge.

8 I just wanted to confirm that Court has obviously 9 resolved all the guidelines issues that the defense had in 10 other objections to the PSR.

11 THE COURT: Yes, we are coming to that.

12 Yes.

13 THE DEFENDANT: I just want to say one thing.

14 I am one person and the Prophet Mohammed, peace be 15 upon him, forgave all his personal enemies no matter how many 16 how much injustice. And we all know, people who know him, how 17 much he suffered but he never took personal revenge. He did go 18 after people for other reasons but not for personal revenge 19 ever.

20 Forgive everybody in my case, please. From even in 21 the future what they may potentially do to me. If I'm 22 forgiving them and I have -- even I announced during the trial 23 forgave the two soldiers who shot me, so just forgive them, 24 please. Don't get angry. If I'm not then nobody else should.
25 Just, the world is full of injustices. You can strive

1 in many ways to make the world a more livable, peaceful place
2 and if I know that people are doing that because I said that,
3 that would make me so happy. You know? It would just, you
4 know.

5 So that's clear, right?

6 Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 THE DEFENDANT: And the also forgive Judge Berman. I
9 didn't say that because I want the anger to be directed to him, 10 the point about the jury. That was just a clarification. I'm 11 not recommending being angry at anybody for me.

12 THE COURT: Let me tell you, I appreciate it.

13 THE DEFENDANT: No problem.

14 THE COURT: And I wish more defendants would tell it 15 the same way that you do.

16 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: So, are there any further objections to 18 the contents of the presentence report apart from what have 19 been submitted on the record?

20 MS. CARDI: No, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Anything from the government?

22 MR. LAVIGNE: No, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Any further objections, Dr. Siddiqui? Do 24 you have any further objections to note?

25 THE DEFENDANT: What do you mean further objections?

1 THE COURT: Well, I have heard you.
2 THE DEFENDANT: I have too many but I am not saying 3 them --
4 THE COURT: Well, you can.
5 THE DEFENDANT: -- because people will spend the rest 6 of the day here.
7 THE COURT: So, what I usually do is -- 8 THE DEFENDANT: You can ask if I agree with anything,

09N5sids.txt

9 that would be wonderful and take less time.
10 THE COURT: I don't expect that you do and there is no
11 obligation that you do. I think, as a matter of fact, speaking 12 from my perspective, you were very articulate and eloquent in 13 stating the positions that you did state. And, frankly, I 14 appreciate that.

15 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: So, I'm going to adopt the findings of 17 fact and presentence report unless defense counsel, I will ask 18 one more time if there is any further objections.

19 MS. CARDI: No, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Government?

21 MR. LAVIGNE: No, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: And I will assume that Dr. Siddiqui is 23 also all set there?

24 So, I think we should move right to the imposition of 25 the sentence. Just bear with me for one moment.

09N5sids sentence
1 So, having considered the factors at 18, United States
2 Code, Section 3553(a), it is my judgment that Dr. Siddiqui be 3 sentenced to a period of incarceration of 86 years, 76 years on 4 Count One, Two, Three, Five, Six and Seven grouped together, 5 plus 10 years on Count Four.

6 Upon release from incarceration she would be placed on 7 supervised release for a period of five years. I said before 8 and am corrected by the government, only one count carries a 9 five-year term of supervised release, the others a three-year 10 term. Those must be concurrent. So, one five-year term 11 applies.

12 She is subject to what are called the mandatory 13 conditions that she not commit another federal, state or local 14 crime; that she not illegally possess a controlled substance; 15 that she not possess a firearm, dangerous weapon or destructive 16 device; and that she refrain from any unlawful use of a 17 controlled substance. She would be required to submit to one 18 drug test within 15 days of placement on supervised release if 19 that were to occur and at least two unscheduled drug tests 20 thereafter.

21 In addition, she shall comply with what are called 22 Standard Conditions 1 through 13 plus the following special 23 conditions that would normally apply in a case like this. If 24 there were supervision at large she would be supervised in her 25 district of residence, she would be required to report to the

1 probation department within 72 hours of release from custody, 2 she would be required to participate in a program approved by 3 the Probation Department for -- rather a mental health program 4 of therapeutic counseling by a licensed therapist.

5 I'm recommending that she serve her period of 6 incarceration at FMC Carswell.

7 And, as I said before, I'm recommending that she be 8 given periodic assessments for mental health and help in any 9 follow-up treatment, therapy or medication that may be 10 recommended.

11 She will be required, also on supervised release, to 12 cooperate with the Department of Homeland Security, the Bureau 13 of Citizenship and Immigration Services in connection with any

09N5sids.txt

14 proceedings to determine her status in the United States and, 15 also required to abide by BCIS rules, regulations and laws.

16 I am not imposing a fine. I'm not imposing 17 restitution. I don't think either is appropriate in this case.

18 I am imposing a special assessment of $700 which is 19 mandatory under our sentencing laws, $100 for each count.

20 As I said before, I tried to explain as fully as I
21 know how, I believe that the sentence is, one thing, compatible 22 with the sentencing guidelines but, more importantly, is 23 compatible with the criteria set forth at 18, United States
24 Code, Section 3553(a) and I incorporate that entire discussion 25 here for the purpose of this sentence.

1 So, starting with the government, does either counsel
2 know of any legal reason why the sentence should not be imposed 3 as so stated?

4 MR. LAVIGNE: No, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Defense?

6 MS. CARDI: No, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I hereby order that the sentence be 8 imposed as so stated.

9 Dr. Siddiqui, you have the right to appeal this 10 sentence. If you are unable to pay the cost of an appeal you 11 have the right to apply for leave to appeal in forma pauperis.
12 If you request, the Clerk of the Court will prepare and file a 13 notice of appeal on your behalf immediately.

14 THE DEFENDANT: Can I just make comment?

15 The way this trial was handled the appeal I assume 16 would be the same way and that this kind of circumstances where 17 I cannot get a lawyer of my choice, I am dumped by other people 18 who are not authorized etc., etc., etc., etc., too long list of 19 injustices, I do not want anybody to donate one penny towards 20 appeal. It is useless, pointless, waste of time, energy, 21 money, everything. Okay? I appeal to God. And he hears me.

22 THE COURT: You can, if you like, reconsider that.

23 You have some time.

24 THE DEFENDANT: But I'm going to -- if I -- I would 25 appeal it because I do not agree with it but not under this way

1 of the way this was all done. This is more like -- I'm going 2 to say this: I went from MIT and they can label me whatever, 3 mental and list that they want to. I was at the Harvard of 4 Israel and now I am at the MIT of Israel. I consider the MIT
5 meaning Manhattan Institute of Theater Arts, that's why I am so 6 happy. I take what God will give me, his mercy, and you all 7 see that. So, please, don't spend any more on this.

8 THE COURT: Ms. Sharp, can I call upon you or

9 Ms. Cardi to --

10 MS. CARDI: Your Honor, I will file notice of appeal 11 and we will work out what will happen --

12 THE DEFENDANT: They will not --

13 MS. CARDI: -- what will happen.

14 THE DEFENDANT: Not on my behalf. Keep them out of my 15 life.

16 MS. CARDI: I actually think I'm obligated as CJA
17 counsel to file her notice of appeal and then we can figure out 18 what will happen thereafter.

09N5sids.txt

19 THE DEFENDANT: No. No. I strongly refuse this 20 counsel definitely and any other appointed by anyone or 21 self-appointed. No way. Thank you.

22 I do not want you. If you do, one day I will take you 23 to court one day.

24 THE COURT: Wait. Let me tell you what I think she is 25 suggesting: The law is if you are going to have an appeal, it

1 has to be filed in a certain time frame. And all she is saying 2 is that she'll file a notice of appeal so you don't waive your 3 right to appeal. As to who ultimately files the appeal, that's 4 a separate consideration.

5 Just give it some thought, but I think it is wise to 6 at least preserve the right to be able to appeal by having her 7 file just a simple one-page notice that says you appeal.

8 As to who ultimately --

9 THE DEFENDANT: No. I don't want them doing anything.
10 Thank you. If it has to be done -- I'm not waiving any right.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 THE DEFENDANT: If I don't waive it how does it 13 automatically go away? So, I don't want them doing anything.
14 Thank you very much.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. SHARP: Your Honor, did you have a question for 17 me?

18 MS. CARDI: No.

19 THE COURT: I was going to ask you, as best you could, 20 to apprise Dr. Siddiqui as to the, what a notice of appeal is, 21 how the time frame, etc., etc.

22 MS. SHARP: Right. I understand, your Honor. And I 23 think Ms. Cardi did take care of that.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Counsel, starting with the 25 government, did you want to add anything to today's proceeding?
